Role-play

Do a role play and read the transcripts in the listening part.
The teacher plays "Woman". The student plays "Girl".

Woman: Who are all these people in the picture?

Girl: They are all my classmates. We are all really busy.

Woman: Who is the girl with curly yellow hair?

Girl: Her name is Lily. She is one of my best friends.

Woman: What is she doing?

Girl: She is doing a math quiz, because she likes numbers.

Woman: What about the boy in black hair? Doesn't he enjoy doing a quiz?

Girl: Oh, it's Kim. He prefers playing chess or making things. Look, he is doing a puzzle. He is going to make a beautiful castle.

Role-play

Woman: What about the boy on a running machine? He is very strong.

Girl: He is Jack. He likes doing sports. He always spends much time running.

Woman: Why is the boy in brown hair cutting up newspapers? Is he doing his homework?

Girl: It's Jim. Actually, he is helping his sister to do a project - make a model plane. He is good at it. He wants to be a designer in the future.

Woman: Why doesn't the girl in black hair play with them?

Girl: It's Jane. She has a lot of homework. She needs to finish her homework first. Then She'll do some shopping with Lily. She wants to buy a new dress.

Woman: Thanks a lot. See you.

Girl: Bye-bye.
