

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Around 2,000 people die in fires in China every year. If a fire breaks out in a building, knowing what to do in the next few minutes can save your life.

Do you know what to do when a fire breaks out?

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

When a fire breaks out, do not hesitate to get up and go. Don't take anything with you when you leave. But if you have a flashlight at hand, bring that. It can be hard to see in a smoke-filled hallway.

Word Focus

- She hesitated for a second before opening the door.
- What do you hesitate to do in school?

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Choose which exit you are going to take. If there's smoke on the way out, drop to your hands and knees and crawl to keep your head below it.

Why should we crawl when there is smoke?
