

We are going to learn a moral story about the farmer who was too greedy.

Is there anything you want but can't have? Why do you want it?

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

There once was a farmer who was so poor he had to sell all of his possessions to feed his family until the only thing left was a goose.

Why did the farmer have to sell all of his possessions?

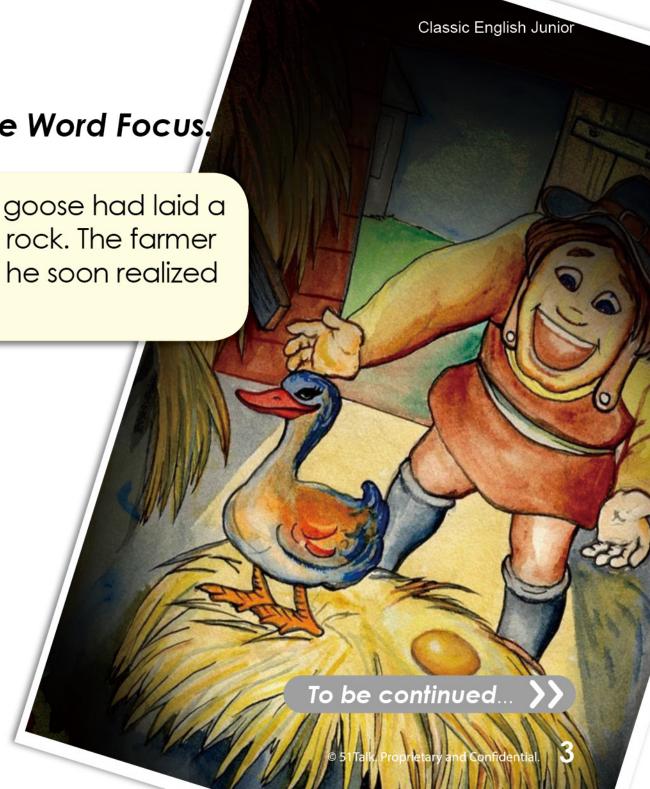

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

One day, the farmer came home to find that the goose had laid a glimmering golden egg which was as heavy as a rock. The farmer thought it was a prank, but when he picked it up, he soon realized the egg was actually made of gold!

Word Focus

- The farmer saw a glimmering egg.
- Why was the egg glimmering?

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Every morning the same thing occurred and the farmer soon became rich by selling all of the golden eggs. As he grew rich, the farmer also grew to be very greedy and came up with a plan.

What do you think the farmer's plan was?

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

The farmer was impatient, so he asked the butcher to cut open the goose to get more golden eggs. When the butcher cut open the goose, there was nothing inside. The farmer suddenly realized he had got too greedy and had now lost everything.

Why was the farmer too greedy?

Fill in the blanks to complete the sentences.
