

What do you like the most about your school? What do you like the least?

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

How do you study for an exam?

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Step 1: Ask your teacher about the test material. The easiest way to begin studying is to find out what is in the test directly from your teacher. Knowing what topics are in the test will help you focus on the main material that you need to study.

Why is it helpful to know the test material?

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Step 2: Re-read your notes. The basic information is the best place to start. So, if you're studying a unit on Asian history, start with knowing what countries are in Asia. You should also re-read important sections of your textbook.

How long do you study for each subject?

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

Step 3: Form a study group. Meet with classmates and study together. You can review each other's notes, and quiz each other with practice questions.

Step 4: The night before the test, go to bed early and get a good night's sleep. You might want to stay up late studying, but you'll need the energy when taking the test.

How should you prepare for an exam? Fill in the steps.

Discuss with the teacher.

If you had an exam in two weeks, how would you prepare for it?
