and how you felt about it.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

When and where: The story I want to talk about is "The Boy Who Cried Wolf". My grandma told me this story when I was around 8 years old.

What it is about: Once there was a shepherd boy who left his sheep alone. One day, the boy got bored. He knew only one thing would bring people quickly to him. He yelled "wolf". When people came and realised it was a joke, they were very angry. The boy promised never to do it again. But a week later, he yelled "Wolf" again, again. People ran to him. This time they were very, very angry. Soon afterwards, a wolf really came, the boy yelled "wolf" "wolf" "wolf", but no one came, and the wolf ate all his sheep.

How you felt: From this story, I learned the lesson: I should always tell the truth, otherwise nobody will help you.

Model 2

Where and when: The story I want to talk about is “The Love Story of Niulang and Zhinv”, which is a very famous love story in China. I read it from a Chinese textbook when I was in middle school.

What it is about: Niulang was an honest and kind-hearted cowboy, and an ordinary person; Zhinv was a pretty fairy from heaven. They fell in love with each other and got married finally. However, Zhinv's mother disagreed with their marriage and separated them. Finally, Niulang did a lot to find his wife. Zhinv's mother was moved by his love for her daughter and allowed them to meet each other once a year.

How you felt: I was deeply moved by the touching love story and I hoped that Niulang and Zhinv could be together finally.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
