

JOURNEY to the WEST 100

A Terrible Robbery

For over a month,
the travelers stayed at Squire Kou' s house.

No. Master' s right, " said Wukong.
"We must continue our journey."

After breakfast Wujing got the horse from Squire Kou' s stable.

The next morning Lady Kou ran into the town' s courthouse.
Tears filled her eyes.

The judge gasped. “Oh no! Did you see the robbers?”

“I’ m glad we’ re headed west again,”
said the Tang Monk as the travelers walked.

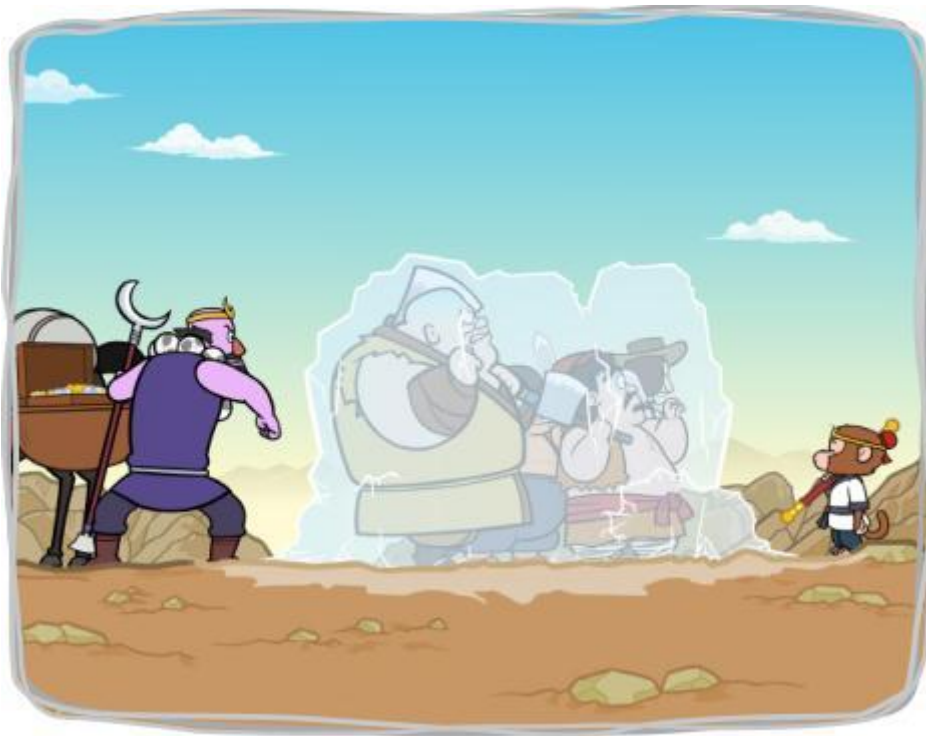

Suddenly a group of men stepped onto the road.

“No money, huh?” said the man.

“Well then, we’ re going to beat up all of you. ”

Wukong quickly recited a spell, which froze the robbers.

The monkey grew large, and fire burned in his eyes.

“Get out of here!”

The travelers headed back toward town.
Soon they saw a group of soldiers on horseback.
