The Thunderclap Monastery

The travelers walked up the Spirit Mountain.

Wukong laughed.

“You don’ t need to thank us, Master.

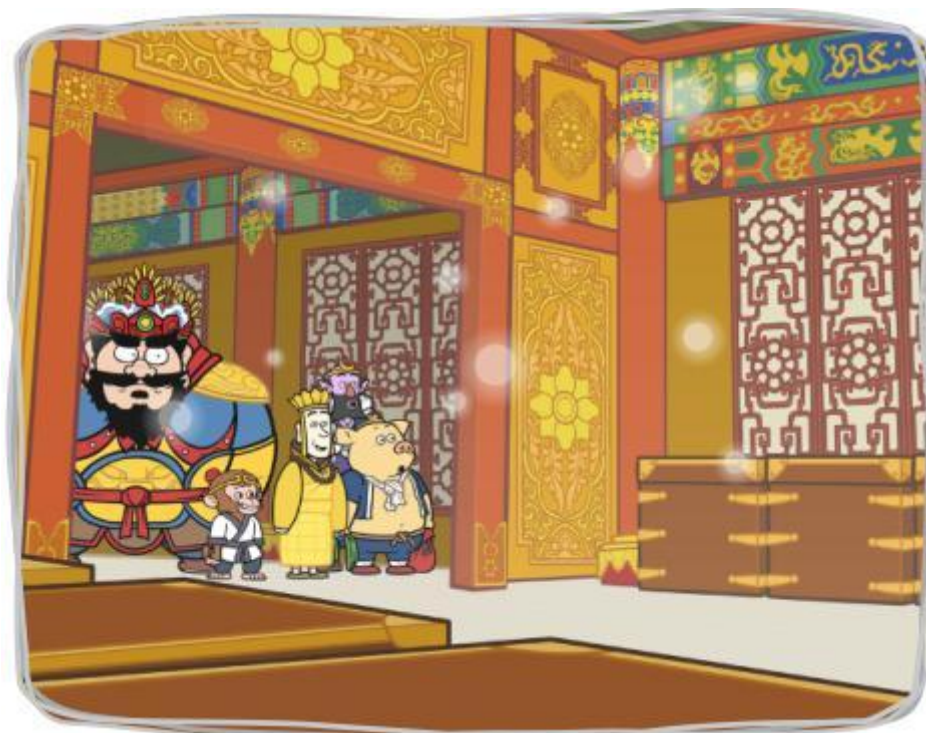

Bright light shone from the Thunderclap Monastery above.

The travelers arrived at an enormous gate,
where two guards stood.

The Tang Monk and his companions reached a large hall.

A guard led them to a large room filled with magical light and mist.

“The True Scriptures are written on these scrolls,”
said the guard.

Again the travelers bowed before Buddha.

Buddha was still talking.

“The scriptures will teach the people there to be good.

A guard offered to carry the travelers to the Tang Empire.

A messenger ran into the hall.

“We have a problem!” he cried.
