Model 2

When: I don't know exactly when I started to learn English. The only thing I know was that I was quite a slow learner in the beginning.

What successes and troubles: I could not remember all the words taught by my English teacher and I found it difficult to follow the confusing grammar rules. I achieved nothing but frequent failure in English exams.

What equipment or books: To help me catch up with other students in my class, my father asked a tutor to help me learn English. The tutor patiently helped me go over all the knowledge from my textbooks. Besides, she also encouraged me to read simple stories written in English and watch English movies. I followed her advice and I made great progress in a year.

Whether: Now, I appreciate the learning I had when I was young. It makes me view learning English as an enjoyable thing rather than a tough one.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
