Why: At first I felt very excited, but then I felt nervous and I got little sleep that night. The next morning, I woke up late. In a great hurry, I took a taxi to attend this interview. Unfortunately, I got stuck into a serious traffic jam. At that time, I had to call the HR of that training center. I told him that I would probably be late for the interview and felt really sorry about it. To my surprise, that gentleman was very nice and rescheduled the interview.

How: Since then, I developed the habit of getting up as soon as the alarm goes off. In my view, being punctual not only proves that you can be trustworthy, but also opens doors and attracts more opportunities to yourself.
