An educational trip

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

the Cluster of 'sq'

The consonant 'q' is unvoiced, such as the word 'quick'; however, when combined with 's', the cluster of 'sq' sounds like /sg/.

Read the following words and pay attention to the 'sq' cluster.

squid /sg/ squad squint

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Which type of movie do you prefer? And why?

Who likes watching movies in your country? And why?

Where do you prefer to watch movies, at home or in cinemas?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

fragile

Example: I am not a very fragile person, so I actually love watching horror films. I like the rush I get when something terrifying happens on screen. I suppose many people like this type of film for the same reason. Many people like to be scared, but from the safety of their own couches! I think of it as a form of preparation in case something scary happens to us in real life.

Example: In my opinion, almost every person on the planet likes watching movies. Most people in China enjoy watching films too. They love this way of entertainment largely because movies in China typically showcase China's ancient past. Many Chinese people are interested in their heritage, and that's just why they spend so much of their free-time watching these types of movies.

be critical of

Example: I tend to be very critical of movies in general, so I prefer to save money and watch movies at home. Watching movies at home offers several advantages. You can eat and drink whatever you want, which is something you cannot do at the cinema. The other advantage is that you can pause the movie at any time and thus create your own terms for viewing the film.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe an educational trip you took.

- What was the trip for?
- Where did you go?
- What did you do there?
- Who did you go there with?
- Why did you think this trip was educational?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What the trip was for: I took an educational trip a few years ago that was related to archeology.

Where you went: I went to a special dig site located just outside of Xi'an.

What you did there: While I was on site I worked on several varying projects associated with archeology. I mostly used a special brush and shovel to search through mountains of soil. It was a really exhilarating experience dusting off old artifacts and working with our expert archeologist that was there overseeing our work.

Who you went there with: Actually, I booked this special trip through a local university. I accidentally read online that they were sponsoring special trips to dig sites and at the time I thought it was an excellent way to spend my time. The specific package I paid for had me taking this trip with six other people, which was actually beneficial since it lowered the price of the package.

Why you thought this trip was educational: This trip was amazingly educational. We learned how to properly prep a site for in-depth study. We also learned how to categorise specific items that we found during our excavation, as it is very important to separate items that are actual artifacts from everyday items that happen to be discarded in the area.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe an educational trip you took.

You should say:

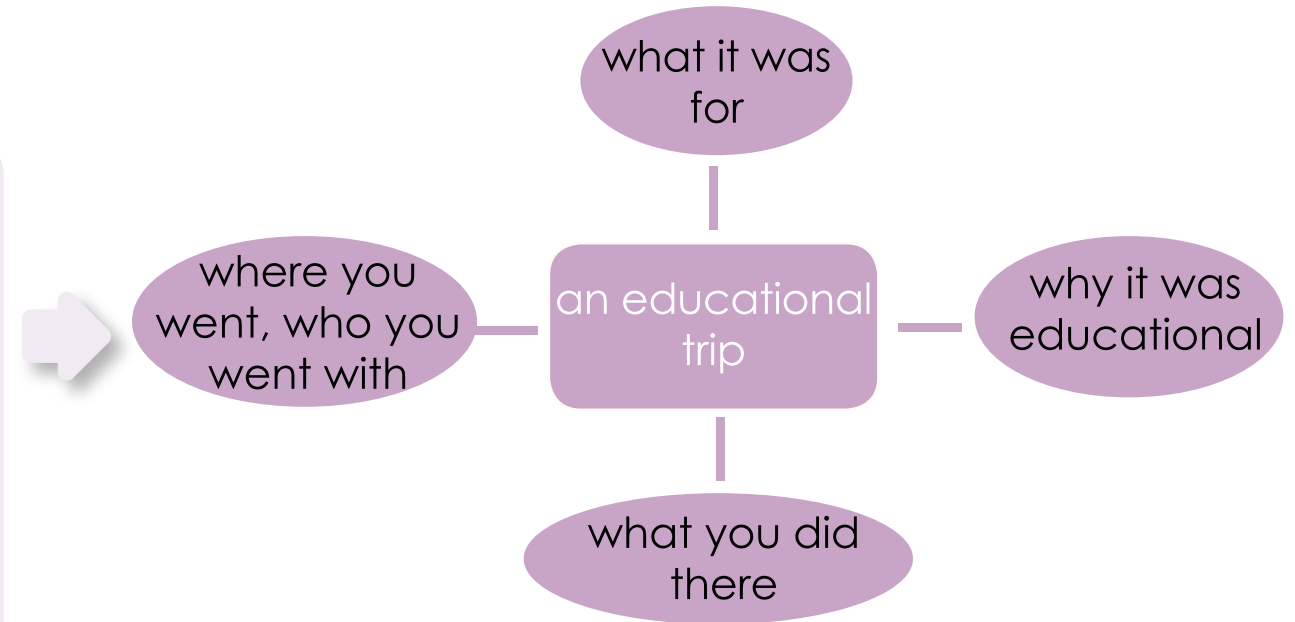

what the trip was for

where you went

what you did there

who you went there with

and explain why you thought this trip was educational.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a meaningful trip.

Describe a project.
