

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 12 Others

Topic 3—Lesson 1(上篇)

An occasion of being late

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Stress Timing

Some languages are syllable-timed and others are stress-timed. In syllable-timed languages, the syllables are the same length and the number of syllables determines the length of time required to say something.

The following groups of numbers each has 4 stressed syllables, but the actual syllables in each group are different.

- A. one two three four: 4 actual syllables
- B. five six se-ven eight: 5 actual syllables
- C. nine ten e-le-ven twelve: 6 actual syllables
- D. thir-teen four-teen fif-teen six-teen: 8 actual syllables
- E. se-ven-teen eight-teen nine-teen twen-ty: 9 actual syllables

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What's your idea of success?

Is money important to us?

Do you think laws should protect celebrities?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

tighten one's belt

 Example: My idea of success means not having to tighten your belt every other month or worry about where your next meal is going to come from. As long as someone has enough financial security not to have to worry about surviving in the fiercely competitive job market and can make a stable amount of income each month, then there is little risk of losing their accumulated wealth. Also, owning your own home or land to me is successful enough in modern times.

monetary

 Example: Money is only worth the value that we have placed on it. Otherwise, money is just useless pieces of coloured paper. However, everything in today's modern society relies on the exchange of goods or services using money; therefore, it is extremely important to everyone. Also, the governments have created monetary policies to help facilitate the global market, which has led to globalisation and this has been vital in helping nations work together in the hope that one day a better system can be formed.

accountable for

 Example: The purpose of laws is to make every single person accountable for their actions no matter who they are or how much money they have. There should never be special laws that target a subgroup of people, especially celebrities. If existing laws are not adequate enough to protect celebrities, then it stands to reason that the laws are irrelevant and should be updated, but with everyone's best interests at heart.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe an occasion you were late for.

- When did it happen?
- What were you late for?
- Why were you late?
- How important is it to be punctual?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

When it happened: I remember being late for an important event about a year ago. It was on a cold and snowy December morning.

What you were late for: On that particular Friday morning, I had an important interview for a new job I was very much interested in.

Why you were late: The reason why I was late was a rather trivial and silly one. While I was sleeping the night before the interview, I took my time laying out my suit and even prepared notecards. I was well prepared except for one thing. I forgot to charge my phone that night, so my alarm didn't go off in the morning and I woke up thirty minutes later than I had planned. I was in such a rush to get to the interview that I forgot to wear my lucky tie!

How important is it to be punctual: According to my personal experiences, it is extremely important to be on time for everything. Being punctual is very important in one's professional life as it lets everyone know how responsible you are and how willing you are to work hard for the uncompromised success of your company.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe an occasion you were late for.

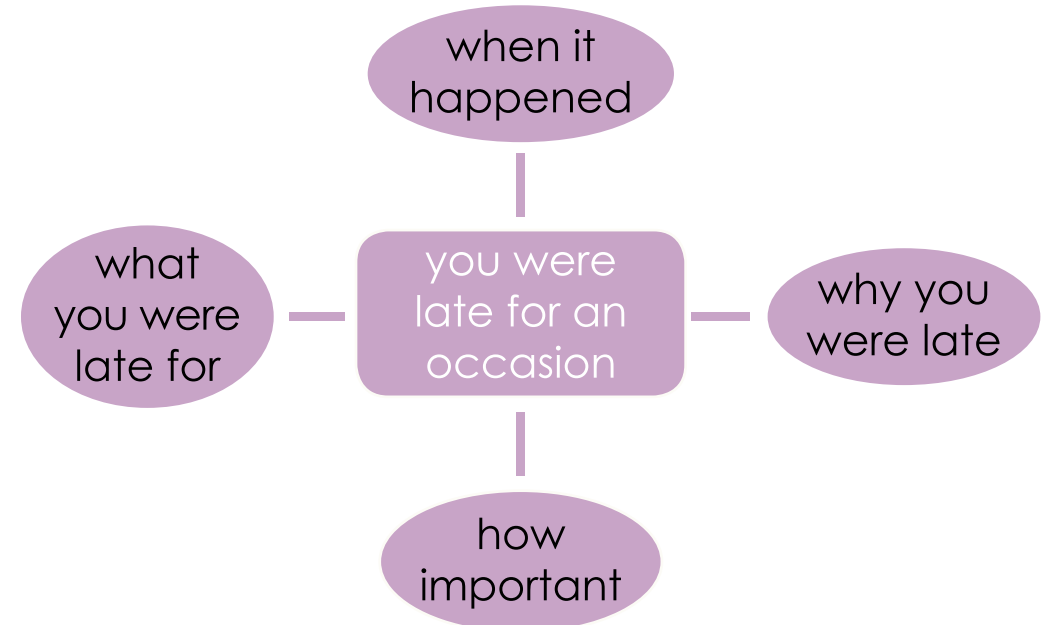

You should say:

when it happened

for what you were late

why you were late

and explain how important it is to be punctual.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a meeting you were late for.

Describe an interview you were late for.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

tighten one's belt

monetary

accountable for

trivial

lay out

rush

Key Sentences

My idea of success means not having to tighten your belt every other month or worry about where your next meal is going to come from.

Also, the governments have created monetary policies to help facilitate the global market, which has led to globalisation and this has been vital in helping nations work together in the hope that one day a better system can be formed.

The purpose of laws is to make every single person accountable for their actions no matter who they are or how much money they have.

The reason why I was late was a rather trivial and silly one. While I was sleeping the night before the interview, I took my time laying out my suit and even prepared notecards.

I was in such a rush to get to the interview that I forgot to wear my lucky tie!

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.