Topic 3—Lesson 2(下篇)

An occasion of being late

IELTS Speaking Part 2 (10 minutes)

You will be given one minute to prepare to talk about the topic on the task card. You will have to talk for 1-2 minutes, and then the teacher will give you feedback for 2-3mins. (5 minutes)

Describe an occasion you were late for.

You should say:

when it happened

for what you were late

why you were late

and explain how important it is to be punctual.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

When it happened: Last year during my sophomore year in college I was late for something that was of extreme importance.

What you were late for: It was the end of the semester, so that meant it was test time. The last week of December was full of final exams that determined my final grades in all of my first year classes.

Why you were late: I didn't own a cellphone during my freshman year of college, because I had lost my old one and had yet to purchase a new one. Since I didn't have a phone, I had to rely on an electronic alarm clock to wake me up in the mornings. On the night before two of my most important exams, a severe ice storm hit our campus, causing major power outages. This effectively knocked out power to my alarm clock, which caused me to sleep in on the morning of my first exam!

How important is it to be punctual: I think in life having important tasks or projects is unavoidable, so they require us to do things at certain times. These important scheduled events must be completed on time, or it can cause disarray in the proceeding events, which is not conducive to a well-functioning society.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

T: Topic Sentence + S: Supporting Details (Explanation/Examples)

Why are some people always late?

T: According to my judgment, there are two major reasons to clarify why some people are always late.

S1: The first reason is that some conceited people will take extra time when preparing to go anywhere. In their mind, looking perfect is more important than anything else. In other words, while they are dressing themselves up, they would be unaware of the time.

S2: Another reason why some people are seldom on time is related to their selfishness. For instance, people who only care about their own time do not really care about the inconvenience they have imposed on other people.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Key Words and Models

What is your attitude towards being late?

 I hate being late and thus I am completely horrified when people are late. There is nothing worse than having something scheduled for a certain time and then being delayed because that person isn't considerate enough to be on time. Of course there are some circumstances that are out of people's control, such as traffic, weather conditions, etc., but still being late should be avoided.

What advice can you give to people who are always late?

 To put it in a way to avoid sounding blunt, I suggest that people who are always late should learn better time management skills. Micromanaging the daily routines should set people on the path that avoids tardiness. Once people learn to prioritise their most important events over less important events, they can begin to follow the optimal strategy in avoiding being late and thus insure that they will always be on time.
