

Unit 12 Others

Topic 4—Lesson 1(上篇)

An unhappy shopping experience

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

A Different Way to Pronounce /ŋ/

/g/ can be inserted after /ŋ/ if a vowel follows.

Example:

distinguish

bring it

Read the following words and pay attention to the pronunciation of /ŋ/.

mingle long island fungi

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Is crime a problem in your city?

Which kind of crime do you think is the biggest problem in your hometown?

What can we do to prevent crimes from happening?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

cosmopolitan area

 Example: I live in the capital city of China, which is Beijing. In this giant cosmopolitan area, there are only minor crimes that occur routinely. Crimes such as pickpocketing and counterfeiting are the norm; however, there are some assaults and murders every now and again. Anyway, the crime rate is relatively low in Beijing, which is one of the perks of living there.

patrol officer

 Example: In my hometown the main crime that occurs is theft. Many homes are broken into around the holidays. These intruders take advantage of the abundant amount of people coming and going, so they are crimes of opportunity basically. This is such a big issue in my hometown that every year around the Chinese New Year the local police stations hire extra patrol officers that are really nothing more than regular civilians looking to make extra money.

lenient punishment

 Example: The best way to prevent crimes is having a strong legal system that gives harsh punishments for certain crimes and gives lenient punishments for less severe crimes. In my opinion, these preventative measures are the best way to reduce crime rates around the world. Another thing that can be done is stricter national registers of criminals and this list should be available to the general public.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe an unhappy shopping experience that you had.

- What did you buy?
- When and where did you buy it/them?
- Why you bought it/them?
- Why was this experience unhappy?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What you bought: Once I had a really bad experience of buying a refurbished laptop.

When and where you bought it/them: I bought this electronic device a year ago from a popular online retailer in China. This online shop specialises in selling electronic equipment. The store is called JD and they even have traditional brick-and-mortar stores as well.

Why you bought it/them: The reason I purchased this item is a rather simple one. The laptop I had been using had a major malfunction. Its hard drive crashed. I took it to a local computer repair man so that I could try to salvage what I could from the laptop, but he told me it was hopeless and suggested I buy a new one.

Why this experience was unhappy: After I received the portable device via express delivery, which I paid an arm and a leg for, I discovered that my newly paid-for device was defective. Upon booting up the laptop, it seemed to be working perfectly, but after several hours the screen started to malfunction. I quickly researched the issue on the Internet and found that this problem was caused by faulty wiring. I contacted the online supplier that sold me the laptop and they told me that this issue was not covered under their limited warranty. Sadly, I ended up selling the laptop as spare parts and buying a desktop computer instead.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe an unhappy shopping experience that you had.

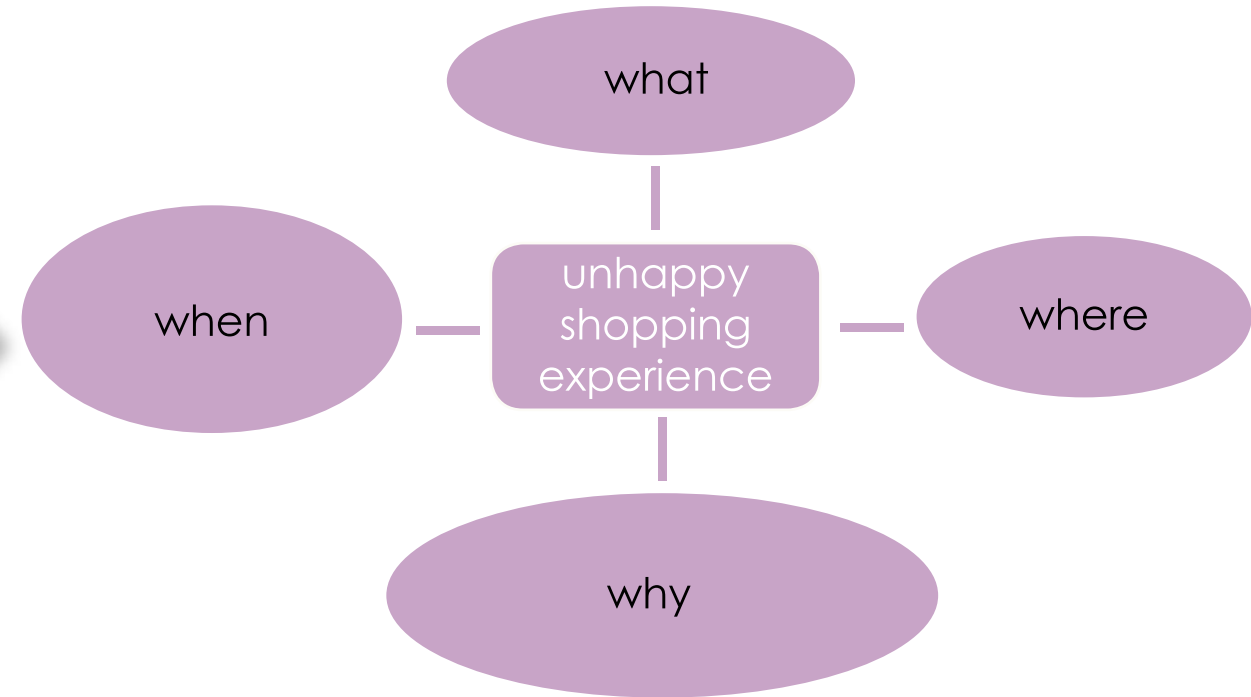

You should say:

what you bought

when and where you bought it/them

why you bought it/them

and explain why this experience was unhappy.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe an unhappy trip.

Describe an unhappy dining experience.
