An unhappy shopping experience

IELTS Speaking Part 2 (10 minutes)

You will be given one minute to prepare to talk about the topic on the task card. You will have to talk for 1-2 minutes, and then the teacher will give you feedback for 2-3mins. (5 minutes)

Describe an unhappy shopping experience that you had.

You should say:

what you bought

when and where you bought it/them

why you bought it/them and explain why this experience was unhappy.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

What you bought: I had a terrible experience purchasing clothes one day. To be exact, it was a pair of jeans that caused the issue.

When and where you bought it/them: I was out shopping on a bright and sunny day when an advertised sale caught my eye. I walked into the store and browsed the many jeans that were available for a reduced price. I ended up buying several pairs of designer jeans.

Why you bought it/them: Usually, the jeans I buy are expensive, so I jumped at the chance to buy them while they were on sale. Also, seldom do the jeans that I normally buy go on sale, because they are considered extremely fashionable.

Why this experience was unhappy: For the most part I did not have any problem with my new jeans. However, one pair of jeans had a small tear near the front pocket. What made this an exceptionally unhappy experience was the salesclerk's attitude towards my problem. I brought in the jeans with the receipt, but the woman working at the Returns and Refunds Desk refused to give me my money back. She even blamed me for having caused the tear myself, saying that it was I who was the trouble-maker. After a big scene, the manager of the store finally agreed to let me exchange the jeans for something of equal value. Suffice it to say, never will I go to that same store again in my life!

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

I: Introduction Sentence + P: Points (Point1, Point2...)

Are services in big stores and small ones the same?

I: No, the services and products provided in stores of difference sizes vary.

P1: Services in bigger stores are less personal and require the customers to, more or less, take care of themselves. The products available in these bigger stores come in a wide range, from household objects to socks and shoes and could even be seconds.

P2: Small stores have attentive employees that cater to the customers' every whim, and answer any and all questions a consumer might ask. This is why jewellery stores are usually small, as their products are highly specialised and require more knowledgeable staff.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

What are the advantages and disadvantages of supermarkets?

 There are more advantages than disadvantages to shopping at a supermarket. One popular advantage to shopping at a supermarket is the variety of goods that are available for purchase. They have everything that you will possibly need. Another advantage is the price of these goods. Since supermarkets have such a large and varied supply of products, they are qualified to meet the demands of their customers and thus are able to offer sales that pass the savings on to the consumers. The one disadvantage to shopping at a supermarket is that oftentimes they are overcrowded and it can be quite annoying to have to fight over an item that is almost sold out and then wait in a checkout line in order to complete your transaction.

Why do some people choose to shop in supermarkets?

 Most people choose to shop at supermarkets because they are convenient, as they allow customers to purchase everything they want in one location and they even have imported goods from all over the world. Also, since supermarkets offer lower prices for their goods, people are quite willing to shop there so that they can buy in bulk. People only tend to shop at alternatives when they need specific food items like organic food or vitamins, and this oftentimes requires potential customers to travel to multiple locations, which is not convenient at all.
