Topic 3—Lesson 2(下篇)

A book you recently read

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a book you recently read.

You should say:

what the book was

when you read it

why you read it

and explain what you liked and disliked about the book.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

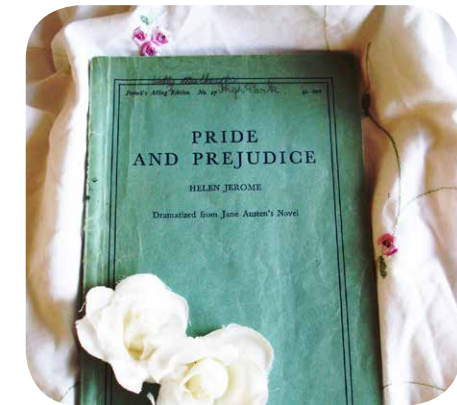

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

What and when: I would like to talk about Pride and Prejudice, a fantastic book I read three months ago.

Why: My best friend gave me this book as my birthday present. She told me that as a romantic person, I should read this book. She also told me it would be a good way to improve my English.

What you liked and disliked: Although at first I had difficulty reading it because the English in the book was a little hard, the story itself attracted me enough to finish it. I liked the funny conversations and description of the beautiful scenery in this book. However, the misunderstanding between Mr. Darcy and Liz, the main characters in this novel, made me feel unhappy because I thought there was no need for them to hide their feelings since both of them loved each other.

Model 2

What: The book I recently read is The Little Prince. The original book was written in French, but the one I read was in English.

When and why: The Little Prince is my favourite book. It is considered the best book of the 20th century. I have read this book several times. The last time I read it was two weeks ago. Whenever I read it, I find something new in it. Besides, it also helps me with my English.

Like or dislike: I love this book because it shows me how a child thinks, what a simple life is and how grown-ups make things so complicated. It reminds me that people should stay young in heart wherever we go and in whatever we do. That way, we will find the beauty of life. I like everything about the book. It is one of the best books I have ever read.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Describe a book you recently read.

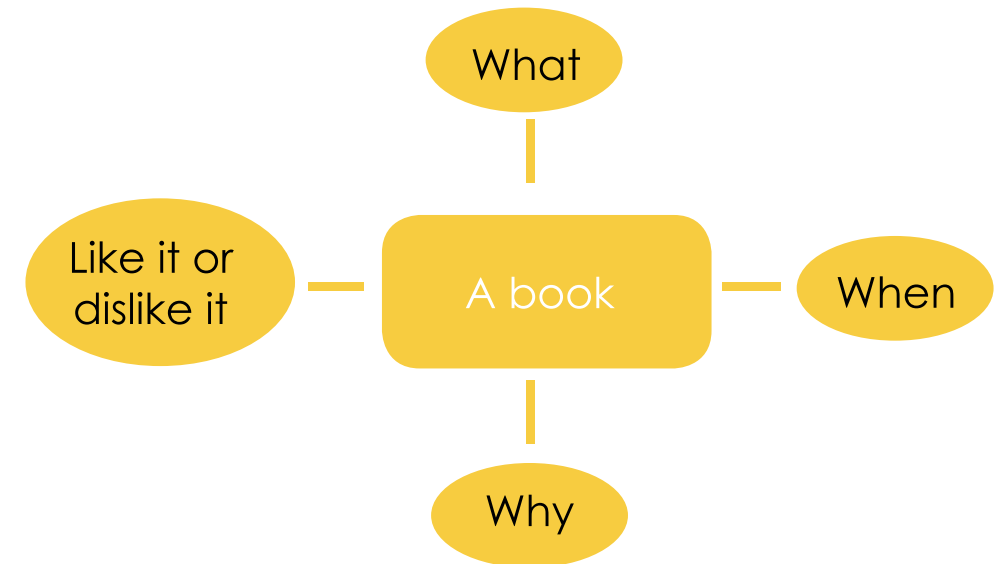

You should say:

what the book was

when you read it

why you read it

and explain what you liked and disliked about the book.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe your favourite book.

Describe an English book that you've read.
