Topic 5—Lesson 2(下篇)

A journey you remember well

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a journey [e.g. by car, plane, boat] that you remember well.

You should say:

where you went

how you travelled

why you went on the journey and explain why you remember this journey well.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

Where and why: Last year, three friends and I wanted to go travelling in a foreign country. As my friends and I were interested in Korean culture, we chose South Korea as our destination. I have to say this journey was really unforgettable.

How: We took the plane and arrived in Seoul safely. Then our happy journey in Seoul began. We tried tasty snacks served by street food stalls. These snacks were so delicious that I could feel the flavour dancing in my mouth. Also, we took buses to visit some famous places in Seoul, like Seoul Tower and the Royal Palace. All of us were excited to see these places which we had seen in Korean TV series and films.

Why: This journey only lasted five days, but it was unforgettable. It was the first journey I ever took with my friends. We had to plan everything by ourselves. It was the first time I felt like a real adult. I will remember this journey forever.

Model 2

Where and why: Last summer, my brother went to Beijing to go job hunting. As we hadn't seen each other for a long time, I made a journey to Beijing to visit him. This journey has given me a really deep impression.

How: I took a train to Beijing and my brother picked me up at the railway station. Both of us were excited to see each other again. After a day's rest, my three-day tour of Beijing finally began. We took the subway to visit several historical sites, like the Summer Palace and the Palace Museum. All of these magnificent historical sites that I had only seen in my textbooks and pictures suddenly became alive in front of me. At the same time, they reflected the wisdom of our ancestors.

Why: This journey was unforgettable. It was the first time that I travelled with my brother in a city that I was completely unfamiliar with. Through this journey, I've learned many things about our history. I hope I can visit this city again.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Key sentences

To be honest, I don't make phone calls nowadays. I usually get in touch with my friends and family through Wechat or video chat online.

I don't make phone calls but I contact my mother now and then. Since I work far away from home, it is not surprising that I spend the most time talking to her.

Yes, I do. Personally, I prefer to send a text message when I need to contact a stranger because I think it is not polite to phone a stranger directly.

We tried tasty snacks served by street food stalls. These snacks were so delicious that I could feel the flavour dancing in my mouth.

As we hadn't seen each other for a long time, I made a journey to Beijing to visit him.

All of these magnificent historical sites that I had only seen in my textbooks and pictures suddenly became alive in front of me.
