what people do there and explain why you like this particular natural environment.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

Where it is: Jade Dragon Snow Mountain or Yulong Mountain, located in Yunnan province, is the southernmost snowy mountain in China.

What people do there: Jade Dragon Snow Mountain now is a famous scenic spot for sightseeing and skiing. I have to say it is the one and only place you can ski in Southern China.

What you can see there: All year round, snow covers the peaks which are hardly ever visible due to clouds and fog. Looking from a distance, the mountain resembles a Jade Dragon(Yulong), which is how it got its name. You can see some rare animals and wild plants there; Jade Dragon Snow Mountain is a good habitat for them. In fact, one fourth of all plant species in China can be found here.

Why you like: First of all, this is the first snow mountain I visited. It really left me a deep impression for its fantastic scenery.

Model 2

Where it is: Hulun Buir grassland is a very fascinating place. It is located in the northeast of Inner Mongolia.

What you can see there: You can see birds and flowers, grass, cattle and sheep everywhere. Under the blue sky and white clouds, we have a view of the boundless grassland. The grassland looks like soft, green carpet.

What people do there: Visitors usually go horseback riding, do archery and go grass skating there. Visitors can also watch the performances presented by Mongolians. When proposing toasts to their guests, they will show their hospitality by singing folksongs and playing special instruments.

Why you like it: It really lets people escape from their busy lives. and enter a place that looks like a dream world. It is hardly polluted, and there is a saying that it is the most pure grassland. That is why I like it.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
