In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

When and what: Last summer, my mother and I went to climb Mountain Emei, a famous mountain located in southwest China. Unfortunately, during this journey, we got caught in a terrible storm which was the worst weather I have experienced.

What: It was quite sunny when we set off. We enjoyed the beautiful view of nature all the way. However, just about half way to the top of the mountain, the rain began to pour down. At the same time, a strong wind blew. There was no doubt that a storm was coming. We looked for a place to escape the rain, but it was in vain, so we had to walk back down the mountain.

What negative influence: When we arrived at our hotel, my mother and I were totally soaked. Both of us had a terrible cold the next day. We had no choice but to stay at the hotel for two days. The journey seemed to be ruined but it became the most unforgettable experience in my life.

Model 2

What and when: It was about three years ago when a terrible snowstorm happened in my hometown. I have to say it was the worst weather I have ever experienced in my life.

What you were doing: It happened three days before Christmas. I woke up early that day and planned to do some grocery shopping. When I went out, I found that the snow was almost ten inches thick. I managed to walk to my car, only to find it was covered in about two inches of snow, so I had to give up on grocery shopping and stay at home instead.

What negative influence: It kept snowing heavily while my family was trapped at home for almost two days. The worst thing was that there was nothing left in the fridge except some milk and eggs. The whole family relied on only eggs and milk for two days. What's more, the power went off because of the snowstorm. That was a really terrible weather experience.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Key sentences

As far as I know, there is no strict dress code for guests in Chinese weddings, but the bride and the bridegroom should wear formal clothes.

There are many differences. One thing that comes to mind is the wedding venue. As far as I know, most Chinese weddings are held in a hotel or restaurant, but most western weddings are held at church.

Nowadays, most newly-married couples, especially those in well-developed areas of China, live independently. They either buy a house or rent one instead of living with their parents.

Unfortunately, during this journey, we got caught in a terrible storm which was the worst weather I have experienced.

When we arrived at our hotel, my mother and I were totally soaked. Both of us had a terrible cold the next day.

I managed to walk to my car, only to find it was covered in about two inches of snow, so I had to give up on grocery shopping and stay at home instead.

The next lesson will be Unit 6 Topic 6 An important plant in your country.
