Who and how old: The oldest person I know is my grandmother's brother. I call him granduncle. My granduncle is 90 years old, but he is still in good shape.

What's interesting about his/her life: My granduncle has an interesting life to me. My granduncle joined the army when he was 17 years old. Five years later, he took part in World War II. The Japanese soldiers were the enemies and he fought with them for many years. It was a dangerous period. Once he almost got killed by a Japanese soldier in a battle.

What kind of person: Despite what he has experienced, my granduncle has a positive attitude towards life. He always has a big smile on his face. His voice sounds loud and confident.

What life he/she has now: Now my granduncle lives a healthy and happy life. He goes jogging and does t'ai chi every morning. He is a big fan of Peking Opera and he practises it every day.

Model 2

Who and how old: The oldest person I know is my grandmother. She is 89 years old now.

What's interesting: The most interesting thing about my grandmother is her adventure when she was a teenager. In 1940, my grandmother was 14 years old. Her mom took her to the northeast of China for business. The place was more than one thousand miles away from our hometown. It was only two of them but they earned a lot of money. They came home several years later.

What kind of person she is: Because of what she did when she was young, I think she is a brave lady. My grandma is very patient and kind. I haven't seen her get angry at anyone.

What life he/she has now: She lives a cosy life with us now. She stays at home every day watering plants and sometimes making shoes for her grandchildren. We all respect her and love her a lot.
