Unit 3 Places

Topic 5—Lesson 2(下篇)

A restaurant you enjoyed going to

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a restaurant that you enjoyed going to.

You should say:

where the restaurant was

why you chose this restaurant

what type of food you ate in this restaurant

and explain why you enjoyed eating in this restaurant.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

Where: Two years ago, there was a great restaurant near my university. This restaurant was run by a young and kind couple.

Why you chose it: I liked this restaurant. Although it was small, it was quite cosy. There were some flowers in a vase on each table. The menu of this restaurant was quite simple but all the dishes were nutritious and tasty.

What: I would usually have a bowl of noodles with chopped vegetables there. It tasted like the noodles cooked by my mother.

Why: I enjoyed having dinner there every Saturday. It was quite a cosy place where I could get rid of the pressures from school. What's more, the owners of the restaurant were really friendly. They often gave me a discount. However, around three months ago, the restaurant was closed because the couple went back to their hometown.

Model 2

Where: Moscow Restaurant is a great place that I enjoyed going to. It is a Russian restaurant which is located in the central area of Beijing.

Why you chose it: I chose this restaurant because it serves the most delicious Russian food in Beijing. As a big fan of Russian food, this restaurant was my paradise. In addition, I have to say this restaurant was really amazing. It was like a small palace which was decorated with crystal lamps and amazing oil paintings.

What: I usually ate the delicious Russian pizza, beef stewed with milk and beet soup when I went there.

Why: It was a perfect place for enjoying an authentic Russian experience. As I have mentioned before, it is a great place with delicious Russian food and amazing decorations. However, a few months ago, my family and I moved to Nanjing, which is quite far from Beijing, so I won't be able to go back to Moscow Restaurant any time soon.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Describe a restaurant that you enjoyed going to.

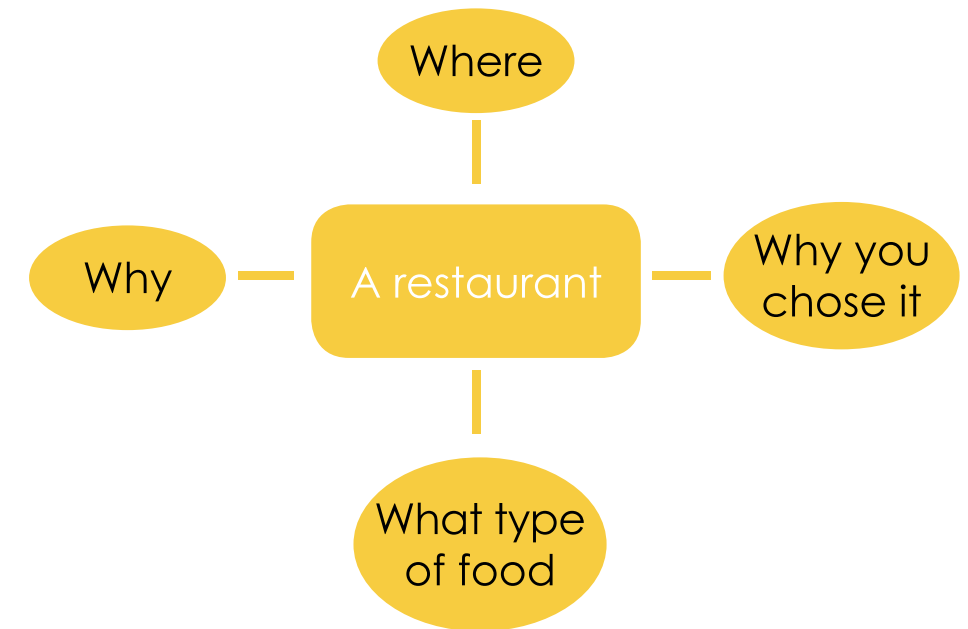

You should say:

where the restaurant was

why you chose this restaurant

what type of food you ate in this restaurant

and explain why you enjoyed eating in this restaurant.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe your favourite restaurant.

Describe a meal you enjoyed.

IELTS Speaking Part 3 (Additional Practice for This Topic)

Why do you think people go to restaurants when they want to celebrate something?

Which are more popular in your country: fast food restaurants or traditional restaurants?

Some people say that food in an expensive restaurant is always better than food in a cheap restaurant-would you agree?

Key sentences

I don't read newspapers very often because I usually get the latest news on the Internet. But I do read magazines. Youth Digest is the magazine that I often read. I read it for fun. There are jokes and short stories in it.

I sometimes read English car magazines in the library. Recently, I read a car magazine called Automobile. The cars that they introduced in the magazine were awesome.

Reading newspapers and magazines makes it easier for us to understand the words' usages. For example, some words are hard to understand if we only know their Chinese translation. But newspapers and magazines can explain these words with vivid pictures.

The menu of this restaurant was quite simple but all the dishes were nutritious and tasty.

It was quite a cosy place where I could get rid of the pressures from school.

It is like a small palace which was decorated with crystal lamps and amazing oil paintings.

The next lesson will be Unit 3 Topic 6 A place you would like to visit.
