and explain why you remember this person.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

Who: As for a friend of my family who I remember from my childhood, I would like to talk about my Uncle Lee.

How: Uncle Lee and my father were college mates. They were so close. At the time, they even stayed friends after they got married. Although Uncle Lee and his family have moved to another city, he still keeps in touch with us every now and then.

How often: From what I remember, Mr. Lee regularly visited my family. He came to visit us about every two weeks and always brought me a little gift.

Why: I remember Uncle Lee vividly because he was like a second father to me. He was a knowledgeable and wise man. It seemed that he knew everything about this world. He also encouraged me whenever I was upset. I miss him very much.

Model 2

Who: My aunt is not only our relative, but also a good friend to my whole family.

How and how often: She is my mother's cousin. When we were in Chengdu, we lived quite near to each other. She visited us nearly every week. We celebrated festivals together and held parties together. We shared moments of happiness and sorrow and she always gave us useful advice to solve problems.

Why: I remember her well because she was always around when I was growing up. She was a gifted lady, too. She could cook, knit and fix house problems. She even knitted a sweater for me for my 15th birthday gift.

Although we've moved to Beijing and we don't see each other a lot now, we still call each other and share about our experiences with each other.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
