Unit 3 Places

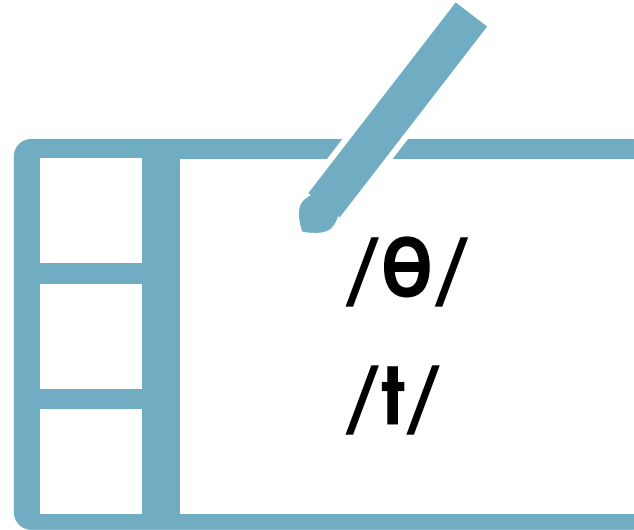

Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

A restaurant you enjoyed going to

I. Pronunciation practice (5 mins)

Try to read the tongue twister as fast as you can.

They can finish the tank model for their clientt's birthday this Saturday.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

inform

 Example: Nowadays I don't read many newspapers or magazines often, except for when I want to be informed about political and financial issues, like information on the elections in the China Daily or about the stock market in The Economist. This information can keep me up to date on current trends and important news that is relevant to my life.

maintain

 Example: Unlike many people in my age group, I have spent a long time on foreign language studies. Therefore, reading in a foreign language was a normal activity for me. I didn't just read newspapers and magazines, but all kinds of documents and literature. I still maintain my reading skills and it has become a practical part of my daily English study routine.

frustrating

 Example: Yes, I guess reading can be a good approach to learning another language, but it largely depends on your language level. If you are just a beginner to a language, it can be very difficult and frustrating to learn by reading. However, if you are an advanced language learner, it is a good way to acquire commonly used expressions, phrases, and idioms by reading newspapers or magazines.

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 6.5.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

Which magazines and newspapers do you read? Why?

Have you ever read a newspaper or magazine in a foreign language? If yes, when? If not, why not?

Do you think reading a newspaper or magazine in a foreign language is a good way to learn the language? Why/ why not?

Tips for getting a higher score:

1. Answer directly
2. Give reasons

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a restaurant that you enjoyed going to.

You should say:

where the restaurant was

why you chose this restaurant

what type of food you ate in this restaurant and explain why you enjoyed eating in this restaurant.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 2. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (6 mins)

Key words and key sentences

genuine

Example: They showed genuine sympathy for our situation.

3.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 1

Where it was: I want to talk about a French restaurant located in Shanghai, where my boyfriend and I had our first date. Since I was not well acquainted with Shanghai, I only knew it was located on the main street somewhere in the centre of Shanghai.

Why you chose: We were attracted by the high quality decorations and fancy sign of the restaurant. The vast amount of famous paintings on the restaurant's wall created a romantic atmosphere for diners, especially for couples.

What type of food: I ordered grilled halibut with noodles and Foie Gras. My boyfriend had blue cheese mashed potatoes and a fish filet. I was fond of the specialties, like Foie Gras, which is a very fatty liver of a goose that is normally prepared in a most cruel way.

Why you enjoyed: The reason why I enjoyed this restaurant was for its peaceful environment, and tasty dishes. More importantly, this restaurant gave us a chance to create a good starting point for our relationship. Even now, we fondly recall memories about the place that witnessed the blossoming of our love.
