Unit 3 Places

Topic 6—Lesson 2(下篇)

A place you would like to visit

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a place you would like to visit.

You should say:

the name of the place and where it is

how you know of it

what things you would do there and explain why you want to go there.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

Name and where: I think an interesting place to visit would be the Dead Sea. The Dead Sea is located in the Middle-East and is bordered by Israel, Jordan, and Palestine and gets its name from the harsh environment caused by the high salt content of the sea.

How you know of it: When I first heard about the Dead Sea, I was in a shopping mall of all places. There was a kiosk selling skin care products, which claimed to be made from minerals out of the Dead Sea.

What you would do: The Dead Sea is renowned for its healing properties, especially when it comes to skin care. If I were to travel to the Dead Sea, I would definitely cover myself in its mud and enjoy a relaxing float on top of its surface.

Why: I want to visit the Dead Sea first and foremost because I am a big fan of spas and relaxation. The Dead Sea is perfect for taking it easy and naturally experiencing first-rate skin care. Since the Dead Sea is so well-known for its soothing mud treatments, there are numerous spa resorts located along the coastline and, in my opinion, would be the best place to go for vacation.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 3. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

invigorate

 Example: I guess there are few reasons why people travel. Most people travel with two major purposes — business and pleasure. Excluding business, most people travel in order to get away from their normal routines. A spontaneous vacation can invigorate a person's health by providing much needed rest from work. Also, when people are able to deviate from their everyday pattern, they open themselves up to exciting new experiences, which can lead a happier, more interesting life.

extraordinary

 Example: Many Chinese people that travel for pleasure choose to do so within China. People most frequently travel to famous tourist attractions. My country is well-known for having many different types of attractions for sightseeing and they are located all over the country. Every year, a large number of people gather at these extraordinary places. Since China is a massive country with such a long history, people spend a large amount of time travelling to and from our historical sites.

drastic

 Example: Tourism can have drastic effects on a country's natural eco-system. In many countries, tourism has destroyed the natural environment and led to many animals becoming endangered. Tourism can also cause a society to despise outsiders, especially if tourists are always causing problems or not adhering to local customs. For example, there have recently been quite a few instances of tourists getting into altercations due to a lack of respect for dress codes in foreign countries.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)
