Model 2

What: I would like to tell you about a guitar that I bought but I seldom use.

When and where: I bought this guitar online about two years ago.

Why you bought it: At that time, I was so obsessed with people who play the guitar. I find them super cool and I wanted to be one of them. One day on the way home I passed by a newly opened guitar store. I walked in and bought a guitar without thinking much. I made a promise to myself that I would start to learn how to play the guitar.

Why you seldom use it: It's not easy to learn how to play the guitar. The guitar barely gets touched since the day I bought it. I spent some time learning how to play it. Soon I realised that playing the guitar was much more difficult than I had expected.

My fingers got hurt all the time. After three months, I still wasn't able to play any songs, so I gave up. Now the guitar stays in the corner of my room.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
