II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you know your neighbours?

Do you get along well with your neighbours? Why/why not?

Why do you think people know less about their neighbours than before?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

adjacent

 Example: I do happen to know the people living adjacent to me, but I am not familiar with my neighbours that live opposite to me. I suppose it is due to the distance between us, as people tend to socialise with people that are in close proximity rather than people that live further away.

advocate

 Example: I am fortunate enough to get along with most of my next-door neighbours. I live next door to a middle-aged couple that spent much of their adult life working for a non-profit organisation aimed at building houses for the homeless. My other next-door neighbor is a single woman who is an advocate for animal rights. The fact that my neighbours are caring and self-less individuals is what has allowed me to get along with them so well over the last couple of years.

 Example: I think the loss of interconnectedness between neighbours is a symptom of a greater problem, which is urbanisation. In an urban environment, the crime rate tends to be higher in this setting and this leads to paranoia when people are interacting with others, so many people choose to isolate themselves from others. Also, since cities are usually overpopulated, it is extremely difficult for most people to meet others and connect on any type of meaningful level.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe your favourite season .

- What is the season?
- What features does this season have?
- Why do you love this season?
- What is the special thing about this season?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What the season is: Here in Beijing, almost every season is dominated by the distinctive scent of smog in the air, so I don't really have a favourite one regarding the area in which I reside. However, I would say that overall, if I am not constricted to this city, it would be winter.

Why you love this season: I have always loved the cold, as in a cold season it is more comfortable when you wrap yourself up than it is in a hot period, since there is no remedy for that. Furthermore, as someone enticed by sports, playing one in the winter is far more comfortable since you don't really get as hot as you would in the summer.

What features this season has & special thing about this season: On top of that, I have to say that I am an avid fan of winter sports such as skiing, and obviously this can only be done in the winter. This is primarily due to the sense of freedom associated with such a sport, a sense that I can go anywhere I like, until at least I hit a tree or something akin to that. Another unique attraction of the winter season is the snow. When the whole world is covered in pure whiteness, I would instantly feel exhilarated!

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe your favourite season.

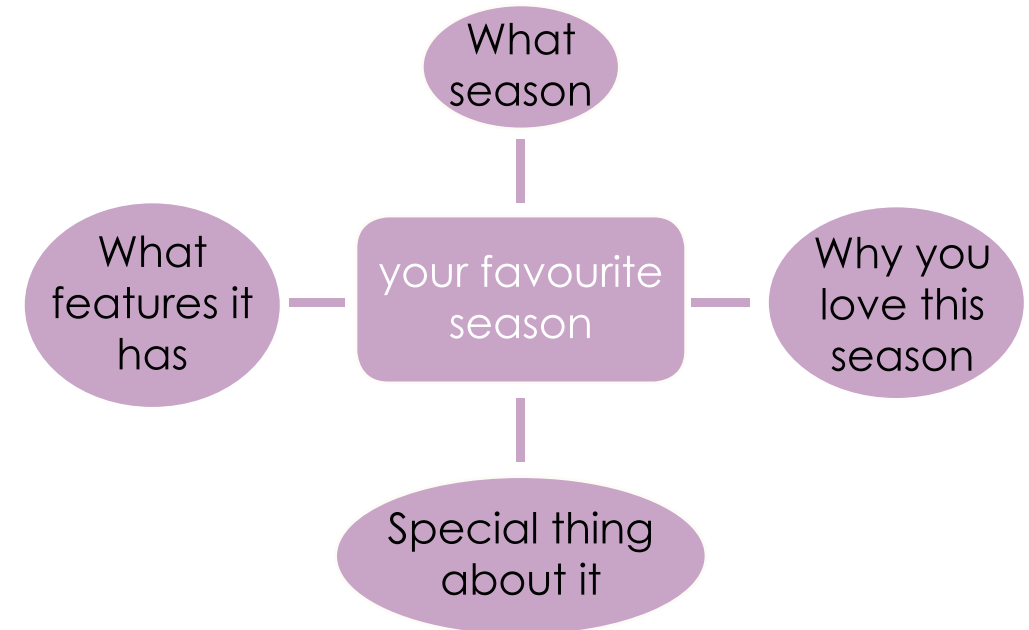

You should say:

what the season is what features this season has

why you love this season and explain the special thing about this season.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe an unforgettable experience you had.
Describe an activity you would do when you are free.
