Describe a natural environment you like (e.g. Forest, lake, mountain).

You should say:

where it is what you can see there

what people do there and explain why you like this particular natural environment.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

Where it is: There is something serene and beautiful to be found in natural landmarks and the fact that many consider them national monuments is testament to this line of thinking. My favourite natural environment that I have had the opportunity to visit was the Grand Canyon and its surrounding area in the United States. The Grand Canyon is located in Arizona, which is a state known for its arid climate.

What you can see & what people do there: This natural landscape is so vast that one does not need to mess with avoiding the hordes of people that frequent other tourist attractions around the world, but you can hike or drive at your own pace and take in the scenery without fear of being disturbed by pesky onlookers. Many people that visit this site will often take part in donkey rides. These special types of rides run throughout the day and entail riding down the canyon on preapproved trails. Aside from the casual sightseeing, there are also other activities, such as hiking, river rafting, and even helicopter tours.

Why you like there: What really attracts me to this location is how amazing and wonderful this natural landscape looks and feels underfoot. It is stunning to me how millions of years of the Earth's surface shifting and rivers flowing could cause this natural wonder, and I shudder to think of future landmarks that will be created.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

T: Topic Sentence + S: Supporting Details (Explanation/Examples)

When you travel, do you enjoy going to natural settings, or do you prefer visiting cities or other kinds of places?

T: This may sound like a cliché, but if I have the chance to travel, going to the beach is always my first choice.

S1: In a dreamlike natural setting where I could lie in the soft sand on an exotic beach, I could feel completely refreshed. Being close to nature and hearing waves crashing against the shoreline would be my ideal travel experience. No other vacation destination is more pleasant than that.

S2: Additionally, visiting the beach is also conducive to a hobby of mine, which is jogging. Needless to say, jogging along the beach while breathing the fresh air proves to be extremely relaxing. It also helps me become healthier and healthier.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Key Words and Models

What kind of places do you avoid visiting when you travel?

 Since the main purpose of travelling for me is to avoid my fellow humans, I do my best to evade crowded areas. Places I always bypass on my travels include popular tourist attractions, giant supermarkets, well-known beaches, and frequented hotels. I make it a point when I'm travelling to always take the path less travelled, and this has made all the difference.

What kinds of accommodations do you like? Is luxury important to you when you are choosing accommodations?

 I am not very materialistic when it comes to choosing accommodations. For me as long as the place I am staying has the basic amenities, I am happy. Likewise, as long as the place I am staying in is in close proximity to the ocean and has a roof, I do not mind if it is missing things that are considered more luxurious, such as valet parking or a built-in sauna.
