Unit 7 Culture

Topic 3—Lesson 1(上篇)

A story in your country/city

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

the 'sks' Cluster

In the consonant cluster 'sks' the /k/ may be dropped.

Read the following sentences and pay attention to the 'sks' cluster.

1. At a costume party, masks are mandatory. ('mas:s')
2. A certain relative of mine often asks me for money. ('as:s')
3. The desks used in classrooms are usually uncomfortable. ('des:s')

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Where do you usually go shopping? Why/why not?

Do you think shopping malls should be open for 24 hours?
Why/why not?

What do you think of online shopping?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

from A to Z

 Example: I usually do the most of my shopping at either outlets or malls. I mainly shop at these types of places due to convenience. Because of its sheer size, a mall or outlet will have numerous storefronts with a multitude of different types of products from A to Z located within, so you never have to leave the complex and can buy everything you need in one location, which for me is the best choice as I am not particularly fond of shopping in general.

character

 Example: I think shopping malls should not be open 24 hours for several reasons. The first reason is that stores that are open for 24 hours usually become hangouts for wicked characters and since shopping malls are so big, it would make keeping shoppers safe an extremely difficult proposition. The second and final reason is that smaller stores already fill that gap in service and offers items that a person would need in the early hours of the morning.

hassle

 Example: I think online shopping has both advantages and disadvantages. The main advantage to online shopping is of course its accessibility. You can shop online from the comfort of your home, at work, or even in the classroom and you can do all of this on a device no bigger than a small notepad. The disadvantage is that you cannot physically hold or feel the object before making a purchase and if that item is defective, it's a hassle returning it by mail.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a story that was written in your country/city.

- When did you hear it?
- Where did you hear it?
- What is it about?
- How did you feel about it?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

When and where: A Chinese fairy tale that has always managed to capture my imagination is Living For Ever. This tale is meant for children's ears and I was about nine years old when I first heard it told by my grandmother. It was a cold and stormy night when she began to recite what I assumed to be an ancient story.

What: I remember being distinctly snuggled warmly in my bed and after hearing the story I mused for hours. This tale is about the pursuit of immortality and the people who created elixirs that did not work. It was only at the end of the tale that one man succeeded, but the liquid made all that drank it fly up into the sky, never to be heard or seen again. Like many fairy tales before it, this one supposedly had a moral principle to be learned; however, I only learned that death is inescapable and that all men yearn for eternal life.

How you felt: I guess a hollow pursuit is the meaning of the story, as no one can live forever and even the one that did succeed disappeared without a trace, thus confirming that either way all people fade away into the void. Overall, this fairy tale deserves to be added to the list of dark fairy tales in a similar vein to the Grimm Tales.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a story that was written in your country/city.

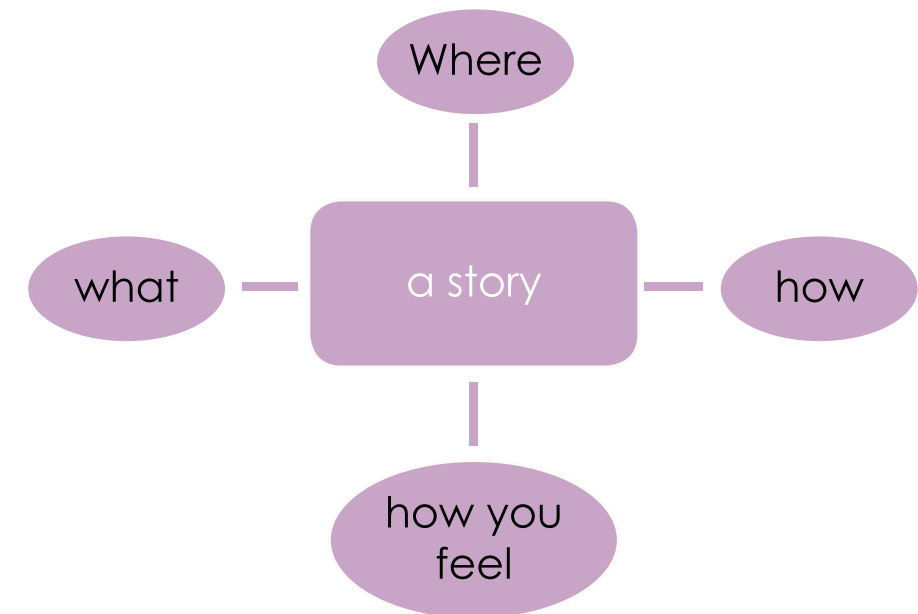

You should say:

when you heard it

where you heard it

what it is about

and explain how you felt about it.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a story you heard before.

Describe an interesting story.
