Unit 2 Food

Topic 2—Lesson 1(上篇)

One of the dishes you like to cook the most

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Weak Form of 'that'

Example:

- What's that? (strong form)
- It's an invention that really changed the way we live. (weak form)

Read the following sentences and circle the weak form of 'that'.

1. They started with genetically modified plants: corn, tomatoes, things like that.
2. Clara Emerson is a spokesperson for the Future Food Institute, a group that represents the biotech industry,
3. What makes this salmon special is that it has a gene that lets it grow faster.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What is your favourite time of the day? Why?

How much time do you spend alone every day? Is that enough?
If no, why not?

What do you do to organise your time each day?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

free up

Example: My favourite time of day is in the morning. I enjoy the sunrise, especially the first moments of light that peaks through the darkened horizon. I also happen to be most productive at this time, so I dedicate my energy to the brunt of my workload in the morning hours. Working harder in the mornings frees up my afternoons and gives me the opportunity to enjoy the part of the day that is traditionally more frantic.

ponder

Example: Presently, I spend the bulk of my time in solitude. On any given day I am alone for at least eight hours, which is ample time to gather my thoughts and ponder many a topic. I am a bit of an isolationist and would not object to more time alone if possible; however, at the moment I cannot achieve more than eight hours of being alone on each given day.

day planner

Example: Although I do not have any formal way of organising my time, such as a day planner or schedule, I do tend to organise each day of the week subjectively. I spend a few hours mediating every morning. During the meditation session I plan my whole day according to my own set of goals worked out in my mind. I have found that sitting in a quiet room and just thinking about my agenda for the day has made me a more productive worker.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe one of the dishes you like to cook the most.

- From whom did you learn to cook?
- How is this dish cooked?
- Who do you usually cook it for?
- Why do you like to cook it?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What: I have always held Thai food in high regard. Of this type of food, the dish I am always excited to cook is Pad Thai, which is essential in the Thai cuisine. Pad Thai is simple to make because its main ingredient is dry rice noodles, and everything else you want to add is optional.

Who and whom: My first trial of this dish was of course at a dedicated Thai restaurant, and after my first encounter with this dish I knew that I could figure out how to cook it by myself. Since I learned how to cook it, I have always been treating my friends to this dish.

How: I start by boiling dry rice noodles, and while this is in motion, I stir-fry whatever ingredients I feel like adding in. Usually, I will fry some eggs, chopped firm tofu, dried shrimps, and crisp garlicks, and drench them all in red chili pepper, lemon juice and fish sauce. The last ingredient is the topping, roasted and chopped peanuts.

Why: There is such a wide-ranging list of ingredients which can be added or omitted. In other words, one can tailor the taste of Pad Thai to fit their own preferences. This above all things is why I favour cooking this dish. Another reason why I love this dish is that you can take your time to make the dish perfect.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe one of the dishes you like to cook the most.

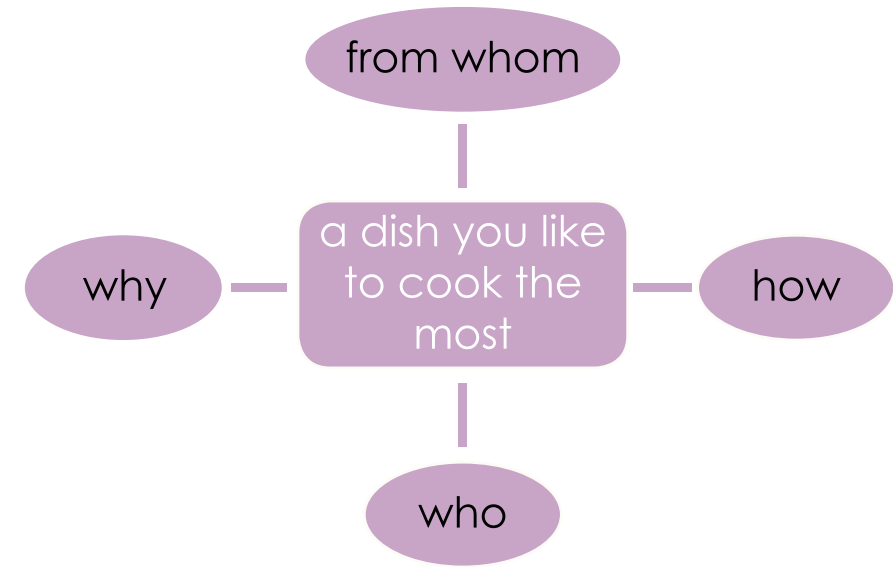

You should say:

from whom you learned to cook it

how this dish is cooked who you usually cook it for and explain why you like to cook it.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe one of your favourite dishes.

Describe an interesting dish you cooked before.

Key Sentences

Working harder in the mornings freees up my afternoons.

On any given day, I am alone for at least eight hours, which is ample time to gather my thoughts and ponder many a topic.

Although I do not have any formal way of organising my time, such as a day planner or schedule, I do tend to organise each day of the week subjectively.

I start by boiling dry rice noodles, and while this is in motion, I stir-fry whatever ingredients I feel like adding in.

In other words, one can tailor the taste of Pad Thai to fit their own preferences.

This above all things is why I favour cooking this dish.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.
