

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 1 People

Topic 2—Lesson 1(上篇)

A famous person you would like to meet

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Sentence Stress: (You can stress words which express how you feel about something.)

Example:

You've done a wonderful job!

Read the following sentences and circle the sentence stress.

1. There are fantastic views across the sea in all directions.
2. At the top of the hill, there is a wonderful stone column.
3. It was a lovely sunny day and there weren't too many people around.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Which part of your country do most people live in?

Do you know the people that live near you?

Do you think the place you live in is suitable for children? Why or why not?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

skew

 Example: The distribution of the population in my country is heavily skewed toward specific areas. The dense population is distributed near the industrialised northeast and the more affluent population throughout the east, specifically the east coast. Similar to other developing nations, many transportation routes, such as railroad tracks, rivers, and lakes, are constructed near populated areas.

malicious

 Example: I'm a bit ashamed to say that I do not know my neighbours. Perhaps this comes from me watching too many crime dramas on television, because on these shows the seemingly well-mannered guy next door is somehow a creepy individual with malicious intentions. So due to my overactive imagination, I do my best to avoid the people that live in the same building as me.

hard-pressed

 Example: To be honest, I think almost any place can be suitable for children to live. There is such a multitude of baby proofing tools out there that you would be hard-pressed to find homes these days that are not totally guarded against accidental injuries. Depending on the parents' aversion to their offspring suffering, I would venture to say that the majority of a child's distresses or bruise will come from somewhere other than where they live.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a famous person - not from your country - that you want to meet.

- Who is this person?
- What does he do?
- Why is he famous?
- Why do you want to meet this person?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Who: I have a deep and profound respect for people that have become so well-known in their respective fields that they have become heroes in the hearts of millions. A famous person I admire the most and thus would love to meet is Benedict Cumberbatch.

What he/she does: Since I consider myself a supporter of the arts, especially as it relates to the cinema, it should come as no surprise to anyone that Benedict Cumberbatch is a phenomenal actor. To be more specific, he is exceptionally famous for his role as the great detective in Sherlock, a hottest TV series shown on BBC.

Why they are famous: He is renowned for his deep and thought-provoking interpretation of a wide range of roles other than the talented detective mentioned earlier. As we all know, Benedict has won several notable awards for his portrayal of the famous mathematician and code-breaker Alan Turing and is soon going to play another important part in an upcoming Marvel movie. Unlike other stars in the entertainment industry, his interpretations are not scandalously innovative, but true to the original character's spirit, which is what I prefer according to my taste.

Why you want to meet this person: As for why I want to meet him specifically, I suppose I'd like to learn more about the reasons behind his various interpretations of characters and how he specifically prepares for a new acting role.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a famous person - not from your country - that you want to meet.

You should say:

who this person is

what he/she does

why he/she is famous and explain why you want to meet this person.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a famous person.

Describe a writer you admire.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

skew

malicious

hard-pressed

profound

be renowned for

thought-provoking

Key Sentences

The distribution of the population in my country is heavily skewed toward specific areas.

Because on these shows the seemingly well-mannered guy next door is somehow a creepy individual with malicious intentions.

There is such a multitude of baby proofing tools out there that you would be hard-pressed to find homes these days that are not totally guarded against accidental injuries.

I have a deep and profound respect for people that have become so well-known in their respective fields that they are famous.

He is renowned for his deep and thought-provoking interpretation of a wide range of roles other than the talented detective mentioned earlier.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.