

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 1 People

Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

The oldest person you know

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Tense and Lax Vowels

eat	it
beat	bit
deed	did

Practice tense and lax vowels in context.

1. I eat it.
2. The beat is a bit strong.
3. He did the deed.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Which part of your country do you come from?

What's special about your hometown?

Did you learn anything about your region at school? If no, why not? If yes, at which time in the past do you think your region was the most interesting?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

out of the way

 Example: I hail from one of the most northern points in China, which is Harbin. It is quite out of the way when compared to other cities in China. When travelling to my hometown, one has to utilise a diverse set of transportation methods such as airplanes, trains and eventually you have to travel to my remote village by snowmobile as it is nestled in the mountains.

indulge

 Example: The fact that my hometown is located in such a remote area makes it perfect for retired life. Also, its advantageous location in the mountains provides many activities that are related to winter weather. Skiing and sledding are often reasonable pastimes to indulge in where I live. Another unique attribute to my hometown is that it is famous for producing a special type of mulled wine sold all over China.

draw in

 Example: I suppose I learned the normal day-to-day knowledge that usually accompanies one's local curriculum. Like most areas, this area of China has a long and interesting history. I happen to feel that currently is the most interesting time in this region and that is mainly because of the annual Harbin International Ice and Snow Sculpture Festival. This festival draws in countless tourists from all over the world and gives people a chance to experience a city that is the melting pot of China.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe the oldest person you know.

- Who is this person?
- What is interesting about his/her life?
- What kind of life does this person have now?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Who this person is: Instead of going for the more obvious choice of discussing an elderly celebrity, who probably has a wealth of fascinating facts, I choose to talk about someone I know, on a personal level, someone I can connect with. Whilst at first glance, you might think that there is nothing about her that is interesting so to speak, but in reality I believe that is why she is worthy of being mentioned. My friend's grandmother was born in 1932, which believe it or not was actually when China was an imperial country. She's well into her 80s now.

What his/her life is interesting about: During her long years, she has experienced massive economic and political changes fundamentally changing the very fabric of our lives. Some of these changes are rather dark and unpleasant unfortunately; there are times that perhaps most in China would be happy to forget, such as the Great Leap Forward, and the Cultural Revolution. These events touched and changed everyone's lives and it's debatable whether they were for the better. Yet she managed to excel in this hostile environment to become a University professor. In fact, this is an understatement as women in that day and age who could achieve this was almost unheard of.

What kind of life this person has now: Now, after the dust has settled, she has happily retired and looks after her husband at home. The reason as to how she remained positive and cheerful during those years simply eludes me, yet it's something I deeply admire her for.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

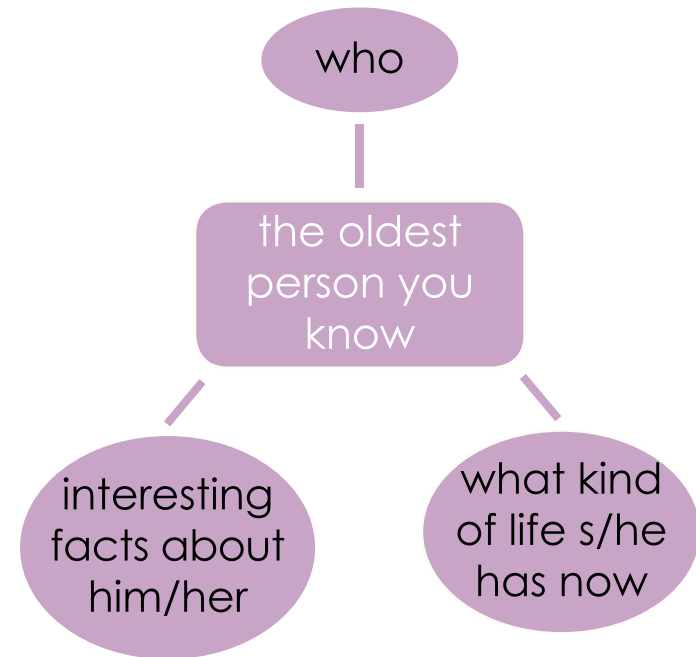

Describe the oldest person you know:

You should say:

who this person is

what is interesting about his/her life

and explain what kind of life this person has now.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe the person you admire the most.

Describe a happy person.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

out of the way

indulge

draw in

be well into

for the better

the dust settles

Key Sentences

It is quite out of the way when compared to other cities in China.

Skiing and sledding are often reasonable pastimes to indulge in where I live.

This festival draws in countless tourists from all over the world and gives people a chance to experience a city that is the melting pot of China.

She's well into her 80s now.

These events touched and changed everyone's lives and it's debatable whether they were for the better.

Now, after the dust has settled, she has happily retired and looks after her husband at home.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.