In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

Model 1

What the trip was: When I was about ten years old, I took part in a trip organised by my school.

Where and who: It was a trip to the Palace Museum which once was the palace of two dynasties—the Ming dynasty and the Qing dynasty. I went there with my classmates and two teachers.

What you did: I can still recall the palaces and gardens we visited there. We saw many collections of precious artwork and artefacts. These artwork and artefacts were once owned by the royal families of the Ming dynasty and the Qing dynasty.

Why: I learned a lot from this trip. The palaces and the displayed artefacts, such as the paintings and clocks, were like living textbooks. They told me what happened in the past. At the same time, I learned and understood the brilliant art and culture of China. I have to say this trip was very eye-opening.

Model 2

What the trip was and where: I think my trip to an aquarium in Beijing was quite educational. It happened when I was 9. To help students know more about creatures living in the ocean, my school organised this field trip.

Who: I went there with some students in my school and four teachers.

What you did: We saw many kinds of marine animals there. At the same time, two tour guides from the aquarium gave us detailed information about them, like what families these marine animals belong to, and what these creatures eat. Afterwards, my classmates and I got to enjoy a dolphin show. It was very funny to see the dolphins play with balls.

Why: This was really a great trip. During this trip, I got to learn the difference between seals and sea lions. In addition, I also learned that dolphins are mammals, and the blue whale is the ocean's largest creature.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
