Unit 8 Technology and invention

Topic 3—Lesson 1(上篇)

A useful technical skill you learned

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Stress Pattern

Nouns and Verbs: (the letters in bold should be stressed)

a concert to concert

a convert to convert

an envelope to envelope

Read the following sentences and circle the letters that need to be stressed.

a progress to progress

a recall to recall

a record to record

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you love cell phones?

How often do you usually use cell phones? And whom do you usually call?

Can you name at least five features of a modern cell phone?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

yearn for

Example: I have a love-hate relationship with cell phones. Cell phones are convenient and user-friendly, and it can be said that you basically need to have a cell phone to function in today's modern society. On the other hand, I yearn for the day when being available by phone 24/7 wasn't a social and business requisite.

survive

Example: I use my cell phone constantly every single day. It's hard to imagine how I'd survive without having my cell phone. I don't normally place many phone calls at all. Rather I use my cell phone to send messages, view pictures and videos, and read books.

multifunctional

Example: I sure can. Cell phones are multifunctional: they can make and receive phone calls, send and receive text messages, run software such as applications, take pictures, and record videos. The true multifunctionality comes into play with the apps, which can be literally designed to do nearly anything imaginable.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a useful technical skill you learned.

- Why did you learn this skill?
- How (and when) did you learn it?
- How difficult was it to learn?
- How useful is this technical skill for you?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Why you learned it: A useful technical skill I learned that really improved my competence at my current job is related to language. I observed that in order to get a higher-paid position at my current work place, I would need to improve my English language proficiency.

How and when: After I noticed the difference between the salary of my co-workers with outstanding English skills and that of my own, I set my goals on improving my English right away. I started to hit the books two years ago to this day. Since I already had the basics down, I focused on enlarging my vocabulary and making it more specialised. I spent many restless nights burning the midnight oil and working towards my goal.

How difficult it was: If I had started studying from the beginning, I believe that it would have been more of a challenge. But since I had the basics down, the main obstacle was increasing my vocabulary and enhancing fluency.

How it is useful for you: It took me several years to feel comfortable enough with my new skills to apply for a position in the English speaking department, but I was accepted after passing their application process.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a useful technical skill you learned.

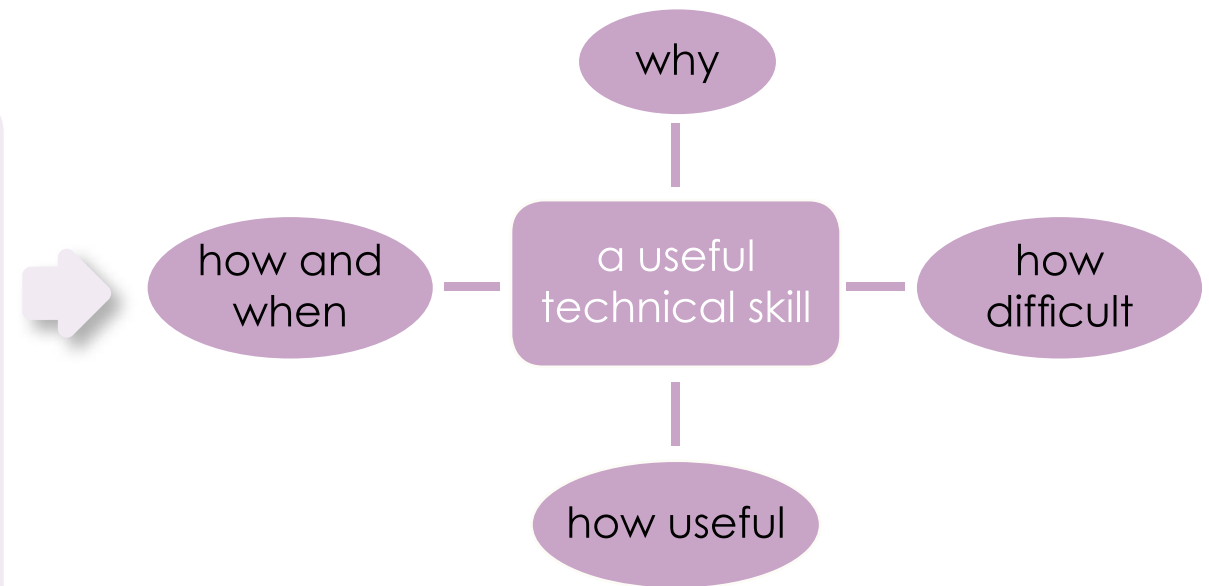

You should say:

why you learned this skill

how (and when) you learned it

how difficult it was to learn and explain how this technical skill is useful for you.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a foreign language you acquired.

Describe something you do on weekends.
