

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 8 Technology and invention

Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

An app. you think is useful

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

the Sound of Letter 'y'

'y' has a long I sound in one-syllable words ending in 'y',
and also when a word ends in 'y' and the stress is on the 'y'.

Example:

my, try, fly, cry, mystify, nullify

Read the following words and pay attention to the letter 'y'.

rely satisfy testify
shy justify deny

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Cell phones, letters or E-mails, which ones do you love most? Why?

Why do you think some people are still addicted to writing letters?

How often do you usually use E-mails?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

share a common thread

Example: My favourite method of communication is by far the E-mail. Using E-mails is the most convenient form of cross-communication with your peers for several reasons. The first reason is that you can save all of your E-mails for future reference in one location. The second reason is that writing E-mails allows you to be more precise in the messages you want to send. The last reason is that E-mails can share a common thread and therefore make collaborating much more efficient.

be addicted to

Example: I would never classify these people as being addicted to writing letters, but rather they have a fondness for handwritten letters. I suppose these people like the feel of finely crafted pens in their hands and the smell of freshly printed paper. Another reason people prefer handwritten letters is that they feel much more personal than electronic alternatives.

mechanical

Example: I have got so used to using E-mails that I reply to them in such a mechanical way. My job requires me to use E-mails to communicate with everyone in my office and all our business partners. Since I have a steady job from Monday to Friday I write E-mails week day. They have proven to be the most effective form of communicating with my colleagues, especially my superior.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe an app. that you think is useful.

- What app is it?
- What contents does it have?
- How do you use it?
- Why do you think this app. is useful?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What is the app: An application or app. that I have found most useful these days is called Elevate. This app. was launched in May 2014 and has had over ten million downloads!

What are its contents: This app. is specifically designed as a learning tool. It features various games that research has shown to improve your cognitive brain function. It actually boasts some thirty-five plus skills that are critical to enhancing one's productivity.

How you use it: I mostly use this app. whenever I have free time, such as at home or even while on a break at work. It is so engrossing that I often lose track of time when doing its various brain exercises.

Why you think this app. is useful: Not only does this app. have research-backed games, but it was also designed in collaboration with neuroscientists. These games have been shown to improve comprehension, focus, and creativity. Perhaps the most useful feature about this app. is that it tracks your progress across key skill groups and actually adapts its games to better suit your learning needs. The more you use the app., the more effective its brain stimulating games become.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe an app. that you think is useful.

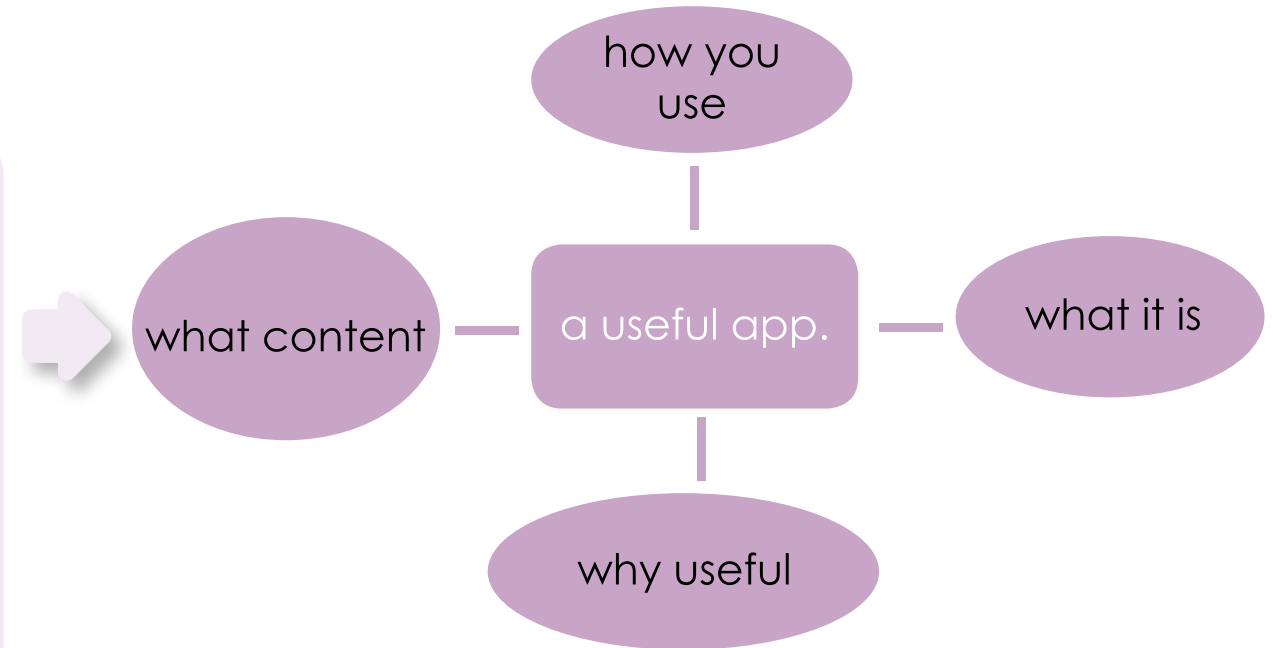

You should say:

what app it is

what contents it has

how you use it

and explain why you think this app. is useful.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a new app. you are interested in.

Describe a cyber game you have played.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

share a common thread

be addicted to

mechanical

cognitive brain function

engrossing

in collaboration with

Key Sentences

The last reason is that E-mails can share a common thread and therefore make collaborating much more efficient.

I would never classify these people as being addicted to writing letters, but rather they have a fondness for handwritten letters.

I have got so used to using E-mails that I reply to them in such a mechanical way.

It features various games that research has shown to improve your cognitive brain function.

It is so engrossing that I often lose track of time when doing its various brain exercises.

Not only does this app. have research-backed games, but it was also designed in collaboration with neuroscientists.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.