Unit 10 Media

Topic 2—Lesson 2(下篇)

A piece of interesting news

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a piece of interesting news.

You should say:

when you heard the news

who was/were involved in the news

why it was interesting

and explain how you felt after you heard the news.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

When: Last month, a classmate told me a piece of interesting news that the famous British actress, Emma Watson, was dating Prince Harry.

Who: It was said that Prince Harry emailed Watson, writing that he'd like to get to know her. He asked her out and brought 12 friends along so Watson would feel comfortable.

How you felt: I felt very surprised when I heard this news. Emma is my favourite actress. I hope she can find her Mr. Right soon. It's beyond my imagination that she is dating such a playboy.

Why: The most interesting thing about this news was that —two days later, Emma Watson told her fans on facebook not to believe everything written in the media. And she was still single. That is to say, this rumour is just a rumour.

Model 2

When: Two weeks ago, I heard a piece of interesting news on my way to my workplace.

Who: In the news, the North Korean government told all male students to have the same hairstyle as their great leader—Kim Jong-Un.

How you felt: I could not help laughing when I heard the news. I have seen many pictures of Kim Jong-Un. I had to say his hairstyle was really funny. It looked like a broom actually. Besides, I can't believe that this hairstyle is regarded as the most popular haircut in that country.

Why: In short, this news was really interesting. To express respect for the great leader, all male students in North Korea had to have their hair cut like their dear leader. So try to imagine, all male students wore a black broom on their heads...

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Describe a piece of interesting news.

You should say:

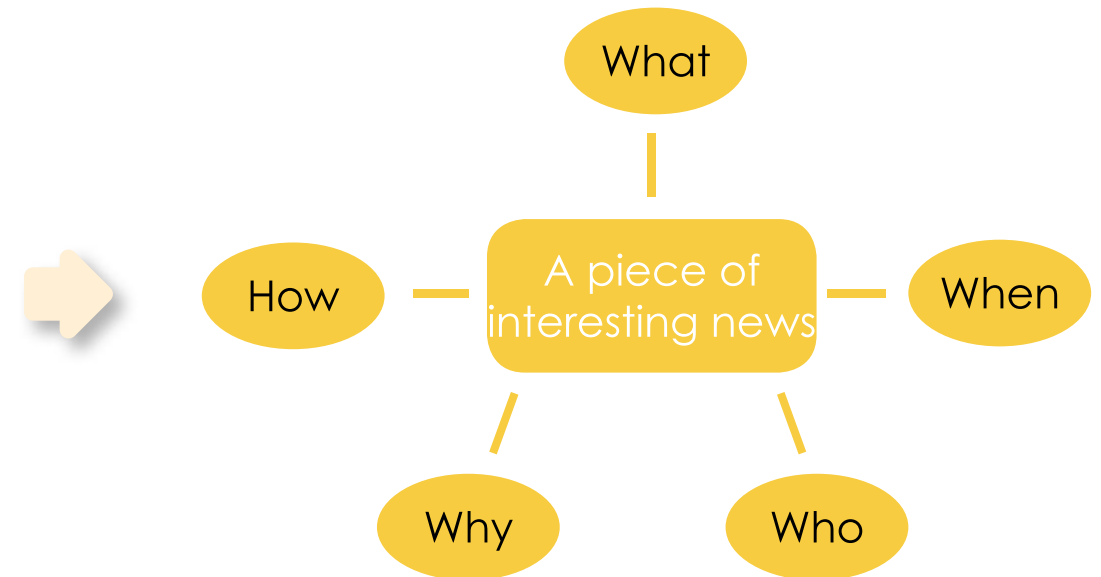

what it was

when you heard the news

who was/were involved in the news

why it was interesting

and explain how you felt after you heard the news.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe a piece of impressive news (you recently heard) from a newspaper or the TV.

Describe a piece of news that you think is useful.

IELTS Speaking Part 3 (Additional Practice for This Topic)

What kind of news are young people interested in your country? Is it the same as old people?

Which way would do you prefer to get news, through the Internet, on TV or in newspaper?

Some people believe that life is not always full of good news, do you agree or disagree, why?

Key sentences

I like my school very much. Teachers here are very helpful and patient. Students here are friendly.

I am an easygoing person and I am very kind to everyone, so I get on well with my classmates.

I think it's a good idea. That can make lessons more interesting, so the students will like their school much more.

Emma Watson told her fans on Facebook not to believe everything written in the media and that she was still single.

I have to say kim Jong-Un hairstyle is really funny, which looks like a broom actually.

To express respect for the great leader, all male students in North Korea had to choose to get the same haircut as their dear leader.

The next lesson will be Unit 10 Topic 3 A radio program you like.
