and explain why you like it.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

What: My favourite newspaper is the Morning Express. It is a daily newspaper published in my hometown, Chengdu.

What's the main content: As any other informative newspapers, this local newspaper covers a lot of news, such as local news, business news, sports news — you name it! However, I have to say it mainly focuses on local news, like news about the decisions or activities of local governments, because after all, it is just a local paper.

How often: I read it almost every day, but I hardly read all the information in it. I usually look through it and read only the interesting-looking articles.

Why: As to why I like this paper, well, first of all, I get to know what's going on around me through reading it. Another reason is that the newspaper is very well-written. All the articles are written in a clear and concise way, unlike many other newspapers I've read.

Model 2

Name: The magazine I often read is National Geographic.

What content: It is a science magazine which covers many topics: geography, biology, history and culture. Published in America, it has been translated into many languages.

Why: It was five years ago when I first got to know this magazine. I found it in my college library. I was attracted to it at once, not only for its glossy cover, but also for its interesting content. I finished reading it in one go. This magazine contains rich information, like environmental problems and the history of a nation. In addition, its photography is excellent. Furthermore, all the articles in this magazine are well written. I totally fell in love with it.

How often: Reading the magazine has become a part of my daily life. I usually read it during weekends. It provides me with a healthy way to spend my leisure time.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
