You should say:

when you began to learn English

what successes you had and what challenges you met what equipment or books you used and explain whether learning English is difficult for you.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

When: I began to learn English when I was around seven.

successes and challenges: At first I didn't think learning English was difficult for me because I had excellent reading and writing skills. I was the only one who could get full marks in my class. Although I had good reading and writing skills, I found it difficult to understand foreign speakers. I tried my best but I failed. So I realised listening comprehension was my drawback.

What equipment or books you used: I asked my English teacher for advice. She told me that I could watch some English movies or TV series. And she also suggested that I listen to VOA Special English. I followed her advice. After around one year, I made great progress in listening comprehension. Now I can communicate with foreigners freely, which is really great.

Whether learning is difficult for you: Actually, learning English is not very hard as long as you study hard and practise often.

Model 2

When: I started learning English after I entered middle school and I had only four hours of English classes every week.

What successes and challenges: I had excellent writing skills but I was quite weak in oral English. Usually, I spoke English with heavy accent. My English teacher and classmates could not understand what I was talking about , which was really sad.

What equipment or books you used: To improve my spoken English, I often watched English movies and imitated the way people spoke English in the movies, because I thought it was the most efficient way. Besides, I always went to the English corners to practise my oral English. My efforts paid off finally. Now, I can make myself understood when I speak English. I feel really proud.

Whether learning is difficult for you: Learning English is very difficult for me but I know it is a step-by-step process. And I also believe that practise makes perfect.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
