Topic 6—Lesson 2(下篇)

A piece of advice

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a piece of advice you received.

You should say:

what the piece of advice was

who told you the piece of advice

when you were told it

and explain why it was meaningful to you.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

When and who: Two months ago, I got employed by the sales department of a famous company. I felt very lucky and happy. About two weeks after I was on board, some colleagues said I got employed because the sales manager was my aunt. It was totally untrue. I felt very sad, so I called my best friend Ella for advice.

What: She told me, "You know, that's what is happening everywhere every day. There is nothing you can do but ignore their words and work hard". Her words inspired me.

Why: I kept her advice in mind. I stopped caring about others' words and focused my mind on work. Every time, I did my work carefully and finished it successfully. One month later, because of my great work performance, I won the praise from my colleagues. At the same time, that rumour stopped. I have to say Ella's advice was really meaningful.

Model 2

What: I have received much advice in my life, but the one I will remember forever was the advice from my grandfather.

When and who: I used to be very shy. I was afraid of talking to others and would refuse to perform in front of the public, even though I played the piano very well. One day, my grandfather came to me. We had a long talk. He said to me, “Everyone is in the centre of their own world. Just be confident on your own stage, and you will find that many more doors will be open for you”.

Why: Even today I bear my grandfather's advice in my mind. It has caused much positive influence in my life. I have managed to talk with others and make friends with them. Now, I have a lot of friends and we usually have fun together. Also, I have confidently participated in many piano competitions and have won several prizes. This advice made me a different person.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Describe a piece of advice you received.

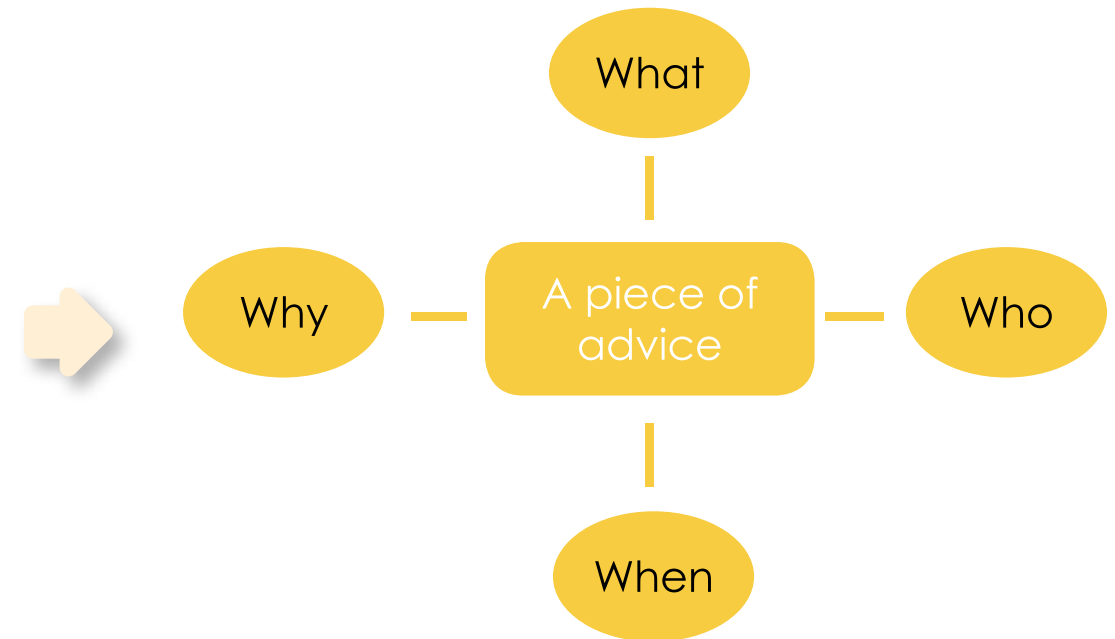

You should say:

what the piece of advice was

who told you the piece of advice

when you were told it

and explain why it was meaningful to you.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe a piece of advice that helps you a lot.

Describe a piece of advice you gave to others.
