Unit 2 Food

Topic 6—Lesson 2(下篇)

A foreign food you would like to try

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a foreign food you would like to try.

You should say:

what it is

where you can eat it

how you know about this food

and explain why you would like to try it.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

What: I would like to try raw octopus. It's a Korean dish.

How you know of it: I first learned about this dish on a TV show. It was a tourism programme about a celebrity travelling to Korea. She recommended five Korean dishes in the TV show. Raw octopus was one of them.

Where: Sadly, there is no place to try raw octopus in China. I can only try it in Korea.

Why: I would like to try the special and dangerous dish — raw octopus. This dish shocked me at first. But soon I got very interested in it when I saw local Koreans enjoying the dish. In addition, as an adventurous person, I think it is brave to try raw food. I would also like to know what it feels like to have an octopus' tentacles jumping around in my mouth.

注: tentacle (海洋动物的) 触手, 触角

Model 2

What: I've always wanted to try beet soup. It's a traditional Russian dish.

Where: I can try beet soup in Beijing. There is an authentic Russian restaurant near central Beijing.

How: One of my friends recommended me beet soup. He stayed in Russia for a year and he became a big fan of Russian food, especially the beet soup. Last weekend, he went to Moscow Restaurant and found the beet soup there tasted exactly the same as the one he had in Russia.

Why: There are two reasons why I am looking forward to trying beet soup. Firstly, I've never seen beets before. I would like to know what they look like. Secondly, I am interested in the country, Russia. Maybe I can become more familiar with the culture by trying its local food.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Describe a foreign food you would like to try.

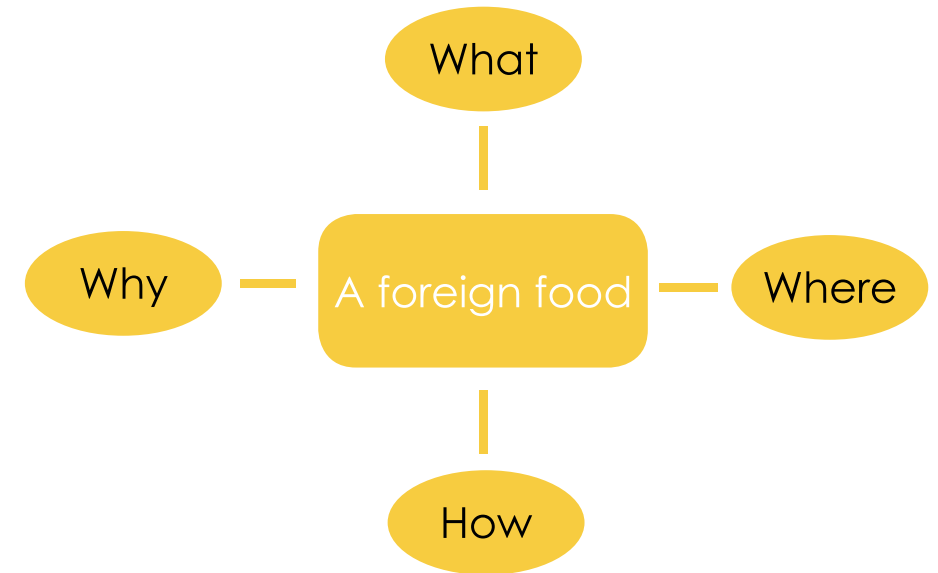

You should say:

what it is

where you can eat it

how you know about this food

and explain why you would like to try it.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe your favourite food.

Describe some food you were recommended to eat.

IELTS Speaking Part 3 (Additional Practice for This Topic)

Why are there more and more people who prefer to eat out?

Where do you like to eat at, five-star restaurants or small local restaurants?

What do you usually consider when you choose a restaurant?

Key sentences

Generally speaking, I prefer casual clothes to formal ones. Casual clothes are more comfortable. Plus as a student, I don't have many chances to wear formal clothes.

Wearing uniforms in the workplace makes people look smarter and more professional.

In my opinion, men are not as picky as women when it comes to clothes. Most men care more about how comfortable the clothes are, while women care more about the design.

This dish shocked me at first. But soon I got very interested in it when I saw local Koreans enjoying the dish.

In addition, as an adventurous person, I think it is brave to try raw food.

I was told that the most authentic beet soup people can have in Beijing is in Moscow Restaurant, a popular Russian restaurant.

The next lesson will be Unit 3 Topic 1 My deal home.
