IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a gift you have received that was important to you.

You should say:

what the gift was

who gave you the gift

why it was given to you and explain why it was important to you.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

What and Who: On my 21st birthday, I received a laptop from my father. It is one of the best gifts that I've ever received.

Why it was given to you: My old laptop broke down when I was doing my homework. Since I need a computer to contact my family and do my homework, my father thought it would be practical to buy me a new computer as a birthday gift.

Why it was important: The laptop has brought a lot of convenience to my life. I use it for my studies, such as doing my homework and sending my assignments by e-mail. I also find it much faster to take down class notes by typing rather than by writing on a notebook. This laptop has also brought me entertainment since I listen to music and watch movies on it. I am thankful for my father and all the things he has given to me.

Model 2

What and who: The special gift I got is a very beautiful mug which was given to me by my boyfriend. It is a pink mug with a heart on it. Inside the heart, it is a picture of us smiling.

Why it was given to you: My boyfriend gave this mug to me as our one year anniversary gift. He also got one for himself in blue. He told me he designed these two mugs and they are a couple, just like us.

Why it was important: I was deeply moved when I received this gift because it was designed by my boyfriend. It's very sweet of him for doing that. Even though we study in different cities, this mug reminds me about him all the time. This mug represents the sincere love of my boyfriend for me. It makes me feel happy whenever I look at it. I use the mug to drink water every day.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
