Topic 2—Lesson 2(下篇)

Something you don't use quite often

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (20 mins)

1. Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe something you bought but don't use quite often.

You should say:

what this thing is

when and where you bought it

why you bought it

and explain why you don't use it quite often.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

What and when: I bought a suit last year but I only wore it once.

Why and where: I got a new part-time job in a big company. It was my first "job". My friend advised me to dress like a professional lady/gentleman in the office. Thus, we went to a shopping mall near our school and bought the suit.

Why you don't use it: However, something awkward happened on my first day to my part-time job. I decided not to wear that suit again. I wore my suit to the office on that day. However, I found nobody else in the office was wearing a suit. Most of them were wearing T-shirts and jeans. They told me to not wear the suit because T-shirts and jeans would make me feel more comfortable and let me stay more focused on work. What's more, they told me I looked like a salesman wearing a suit. From the next day on, the suit has been lying in my wardrobe.

Model 2

When, what and where: On the first day I became a freshman, I bought an electronic dictionary online.

Why: It was an English-Chinese dictionary. I thought it would be convenient for me to look up any unknown English words. In this way, I could improve my English.

Why you don't use: However, there isn't much chance for me to make use of the electronic dictionary. It was not as useful as I thought it would be. On the first day of my English class in university, my English teacher told us the worst way to remember English words was to look up their Chinese translation. Instead, she suggested that we explain English words in English. In addition, this electronic dictionary is not as convenient as the one my mobile phone. Since there is an English-Chinese dictionary on my phone, I only need to bring my phone with me.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

Describe something you bought but haven't used quite often.

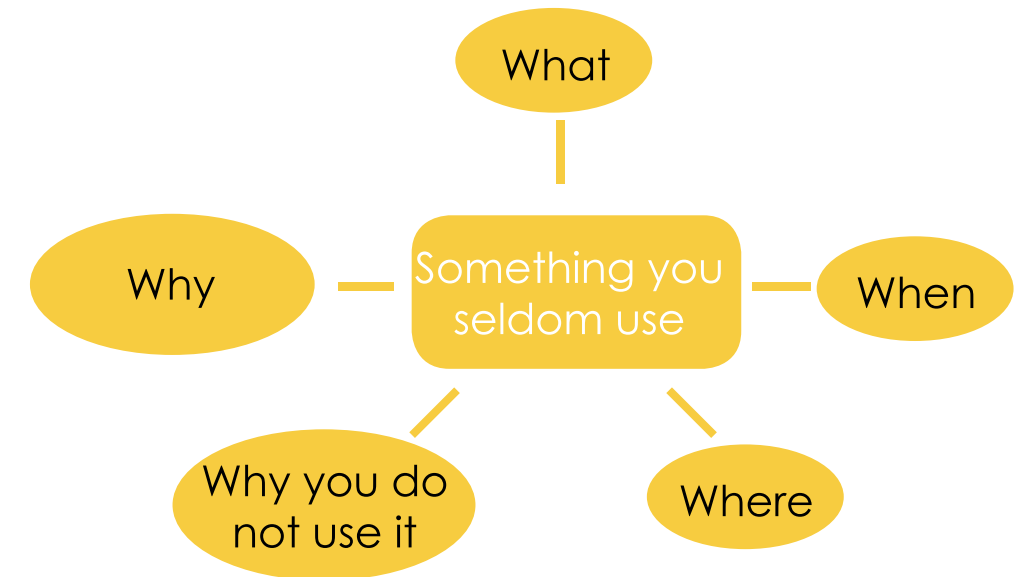

You should say:

what this thing is

when and where you bought it

why you bought it

and explain why you don't use it quite often.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe something that you feel regretful for buying.

Describe something that does harm to the environment but is widely used.

IELTS Speaking Part 3 (Additional Practice for This Topic)

Is recycling becoming widespread in China?

Do you think recycling is overemphasized or not?

Do you think we should make recycling more of a priority? Why or why not?

V. Summary (5 mins)

Key sentences

Every Monday morning, we have a weekly meeting. From Tuesday to Friday, I make phone calls to customers.

I am usually busy wrapping up the work of the week and making plans for next week on Friday.

I would change Saturday. Almost every Saturday, I stayed at home the whole day. It is quite boring. I think I'd better go out to do some volunteer work.

My friend advised me to dress like a professional lady/gentleman in the office.

They told me not to wear the suit because T-shirts and jeans would make me feel more comfortable and more focused on work.

There isn't much chance for me to make use of the electronic dictionary.
