Describe an important plant in your country.

You should say:

what the plant is what you know about it

whether you like it

and explain why it is important in your country.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

What it is: Let me talk about an important plant in my country — the rice plant. Even today it is a food staple for much of the world's population.

What you know: I don't know much about rice. I just know some general information about it. Rice has a grass-like appearance, and it grows well as long as it gets enough water. It is a good source of energy for humans.

Whether you like it: As it is the main crop in China, I guess many people can't live without it. However, the reason I like it is that it goes well with many dishes, and it is very nutritional.

Why it is important: Rice plays a vital role in China, as it cannot be easily replaced by other food. It offers the most basic nutritional elements that people need. Most of the calories in Chinese people's diets come from rice, so rice is important for the Chinese.

Model 2

What it is: If you ask me about an important plant in my country, the first one that comes to mind is the lotus.

What you know: The lotus is very different from other flowers. Although it grows in muddy areas, it rises above water with extraordinary beauty. It's not one of the most sweet-smelling plants, but it's very lovely in its own unique way. The whole lotus flower can be a material for medicine and its root can be used as a great cooking ingredient.

Whether you like: Personally speaking, I really love lotuses. In the summer, I always appreciate lotuses when they are blooming in the lake. Lotuses give me a sense of peace and relaxation.

Why it is important: The lotus is important to the Chinese not only because of its beauty, but also because it plays a vital role in Chinese culture and literature. The Chinese believe that the lotus represents purity, a long life and honor. Furthermore, the appreciation of lotuses has developed into a unique "lotus culture" in China.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

You should say:

Whether you like it

And explain why it is important in your country.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.
