2. Here are the two models for the IELTS Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. Students are required to recite these two models after class. (10 mins)

Model 1

What and when: I would like to describe a traditional event named tomb-sweeping that occurs during the Qingming Festival. It's generally on the 4th or 5th of April which is considered the beginning of spring. It is a special event that is held in memory of Chinese people's ancestors.

Who: Traditionally, every family member gets together to attend the event every year — even people who work far away from home.

What: On that day, most people clean their ancestors' tomb, and then offer fruit and liquor in order to show their respect. After that, people burn some handmade paper stuff, like cars or houses for their ancestors. By doing these things, people believe they will have a better life after death.

Why: This event is very important for Chinese people because it is a major way to respect and honour their ancestors. This event also gives people a chance to recall their family history.

Model 2

What and when: I want to talk about about the Lantern Fair, which is a traditional event held to celebrate the Lantern Festival in China. Usually, it's held on the last day of the Spring Festival. However, it varies among different regions of China.

Who: Normally, most people go out to attend this event with their families.

What: It is usually held at a fair. Watching lanterns and guessing lantern riddles are the main activities of the event. There are more than a hundred shapes of colourful lanterns at the fair. Adults watch the lanterns that are hanging outside the street while the children hold small lanterns and walk on the street. The lanterns have riddles written on them by lantern owners. People crowd around to guess the riddles. The person who guesses the answer correctly gets a prize from the owner.

Why: The Lantern Fair has always been one of the most important traditional events in China. The main reason is that people can not only watch wonderful lanterns at the fair but also enjoy themselves in a joyful atmosphere.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

3. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (9 mins)

I guess people tend to acquire a sense of satisfaction from collecting things. As for me, I can find a great pleasure to present my postcard collections to others.
