What kind of cultural events do people like to go to in your city/region?

There are a variety of cultural events people like to go to. Most people in my city especially love to attend festive cultural events, such as temple fairs during the Spring Festival, lantern shows during the Lantern Festival, and so on.

Is it expensive to go to such events? And do you think that such events are important in people's life?

Generally, it's not expensive to go to most cultural events and some of them are even free. From my point of view, the festive events are quite important especially to those who live there because it can reflect their traditional customs and beliefs.

Have you ever participated in a cultural event?

Yes, I have. I've taken part in a traditional cultural event called Dragon Boat Racing. At that time, my company joined the racing competition. Luckily, I was chosen to be the cheerleader for my company.

Shorten your answer to 2-3 sentences. It's easier to get 5.5.
