Model 1

What and when: I guess my mobile phone is one thing that I can't live without. It is an Android smartphone and the brand is well-known in China. I bought this phone last year with my first month's salary.

How often and what difference: I always take my smartphone with me wherever I go. Its various functions have made a huge difference to my life. This smartphone has totally changed the way I get information. Ever since I got this smartphone, I have been able to read the latest news from this phone. Now I am able to access any kind of information 24/7. In addition, a smartphone varies the way I communicate to others. Instead of making a phone call, I usually text my friends through WeChat or video call them.

Why: My phone is an essential part of my life. It is pretty much a hand-held computer that presents a digital world to me. That's why I can't live without my phone.

Model 2

What and when: My laptop plays a vital role in my daily life. I started using a laptop when I was 18 years old. The designs and functions of laptops have come a long way since then.

How often and what difference: It has always been a part of my daily activities to use my laptop and it is an essential electronic device for me. It not only improves my efficiency in studying, but it also keeps me connected socially. Rather than going to school, I can study subjects that I'm interested in anywhere I want, including art and psychology, in the form of Massive Open Online Courses. Breaking down learning barriers, laptops give me access to knowledge easily and effectively. Besides, it is easier than before to stay connected with people. I use my laptop to communicate with my friends, family and colleagues.

Why: I have to say the laptop is one of the most important items of technology that I can't live without. The laptop has changed our lives enormously; there is no doubt about that.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
