An important choice

I. Pronunciation practice (5 mins)

Now let's read and practice these confusing pronunciations.

II. Key words and key sentences (10 mins)

Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps.

Key words and sentences share feelings with Example: People tend to share their feelings with someone they trust.

over

Example: I really enjoy the moment when we can sit down and have a chat over tea.

unnecessary

Example: Now, I am preparing for my IELTS exam and I hope my dream of studying abroad will come true soon.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (10 mins)

1. Please read and remember the answers for each question in the IELTS Part 1 if needed. (5 mins)

Do you prefer to have a particular kind of friend or a group of friends? Why?

I prefer to have a particular kind of friend. I am shy and I prefer to share my feelings only with a particular person.

What do you like doing most with your friend/friends? why?

Well, I like having afternoon tea with my friends most because I really enjoy the moment when we can sit down and have a chat over tea.

Do you think it is important to keep in contact with the friends you knew as a child?

Why/why not?

I have to say it depends. If those friends share totally different values with me now, we will have nothing to talk about. Then keeping in touch with them becomes unnecessary.

Two or three sentences for each question will be enough.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)
