

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Upper Intermediate

雅思口语中高级

——冲刺 6.5 分

Unit 9 Event

Topic 4—Lesson 2(下篇)

A meeting you remember going to Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe a meeting you remember going to at work, college or school.

You should say:

when and where the meeting was held

who was at the meeting

what the people at the meeting talked about

and explain why you remember going to this meeting.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

When: I have been to many meetings since I began to work. However, the meeting I attended two years ago really left a deep impression on me.

Where and who: The meeting was about the project that had caused our company to lose a lot of money. It was held in our company's conference room, and everyone involved in this project had to attend.

What: The atmosphere was tense from the very beginning. Our boss, who was normally calm, suddenly lost his temper. Even though he calmed down several minutes later, we continued the meeting in a panic. We analysed what caused the project to get so far behind schedule, and made an action plan to solve these problems and get the project back on schedule.

Why: Since then two years have passed, and I still remember the meeting clearly. This meeting, which lasted about five hours, was the longest meeting I've attended so far. However, we did eventually solve most problems, so it was certainly productive. Besides, it was the first time I saw my normally relaxed boss lose his temper. It was so surprising that I still remember that meeting to this day.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)

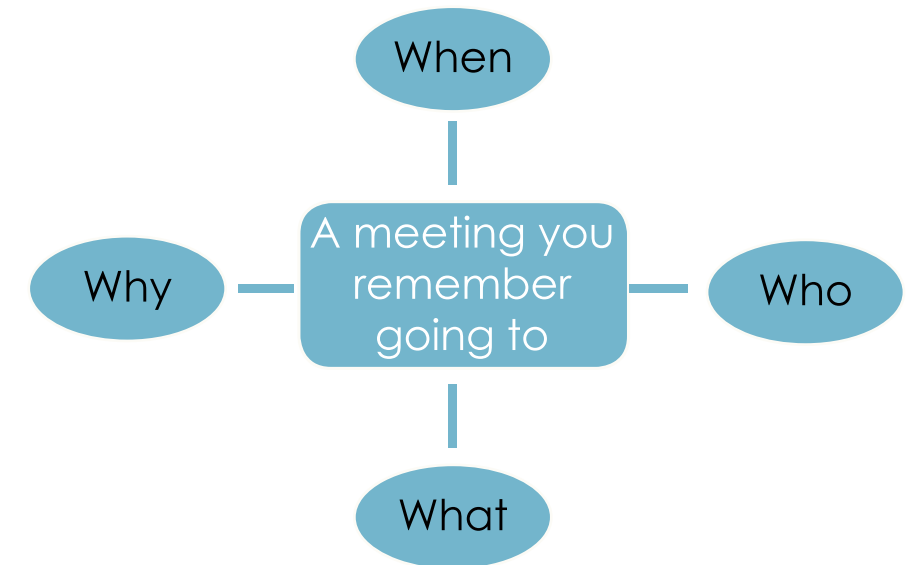

Describe a meeting you remember going to at work, college or school.

You should say:

when and where the meeting was held

who was at the meeting

what the people at the meeting talked about
and explain why you remember going to this meeting.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe a meeting you have attended.

Describe an unforgettable experience.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 3. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

categorise

 Example: There are many different types of meetings that can be categorised by what is discussed, who attends, or where the venue is, but ordinary people are most likely to attend work meetings. Mostly, work meetings consist of colleagues meeting to discuss their work or make important decisions.

facilitate

 Example: Though many people might not like attending meetings, meetings can help facilitate several desirable results. Meetings are still vital in business, study and life. People need a channel, such as a meeting, through which they can communicate with each other, and give and receive updates on various projects. A healthy exchange of ideas can foster creativity and innovation.

complex

 Example: Meetings are rather necessary because everyone in today's society are quite connected. There will always be differences of information and knowledge among people in a complex organisation. These make constant updates of information and exchange of ideas necessary. Exchanges, to a certain extent, can be conveniently achieved through meetings.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

Please give two supporting ideas at least for each question.

What are the different types of meeting that people often go to?

Some people say that no-one likes to go to meetings—what do you think?

Why can it sometimes be important to go to meetings?

V. Summary (5 mins)

Key words be allergic to impolite convey hygiene put forward

in a panic

an action plan

categorise

facilitate

complex

Key sentences

To be honest, I don't like to have flowers in my home. I'm allergic to pollen. Flowers and their pollen irritate my skin, and give me a runny nose and cause my eyes to water.

According to Chinese tradition, it's impolite to visit a person's home empty-handed. I personally choose to give flowers, which is usually viewed as typical, but it is still quite well-received by my hosts.

Flowers have symbolic meaning beyond their appearance and scent. The most obvious examples would be red roses symbolising love and passion, while lotus flowers convey purity.

There are many different types of meetings that can be categorised by what is discussed, who attends, or where the venue is, but ordinary people are most likely to attend work meetings.

Though many people might not like attending meetings, meetings can help facilitate several desirable results. Meetings are still vital in business, study and life.

There will always be differences of information and knowledge among people in a complex organisation.

The next lesson will be Unit 9 Topic 5 A project or some work you did with others.