Topic 1—Lesson 2(下篇)

A good law

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic.

Describe a good law that brought positive changes.

You should say:

what law it is

when it was passed

How you know about it and explain why it is a good law.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

What : Well, there are so many good laws in my country. The one I am quite familiar with is the protection of the disabled.

When: This law was enforced around seven years ago, when I was still in primary school. I became familiar with it from a TV programme, called Legal Report.

Whether you know about this law: This law was passed to help the disabled enjoy as happy a life as others. It strictly prohibits any ill-treatment or abandonment of the disabled. Besides that, it requires that local governments create job opportunities for the disabled.

Why it is a good law: Before the law was passed, Some disabled people were abandoned by their families and they became beggars. Now, they are well protected and some of them are even engaged in work. Most of them are quite satisfied with their life now and they speak highly of this law. Generally speaking, this law is quite positive for Chinese society in the long run.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)
