A piece of advice

A girl in a red hat is looking at the ant in her hand and adds a leaf to help it get over an obstacle.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

cease

Example: I have a dog which was abandoned by his previous owner who no longer wanted to care for him. He is a small black and white mix-breed with a lot of energy. We spend a lot of time outside together chasing birds, which he doesn't catch. I work from home so my dog never ceases to keep me entertained with his funny behaviour.

handful

Example: I do think having a pet can be amazingly fun; however, that depends on the pet in question. Dogs and cats are mostly independent and more likely to be fun pets to keep, as they will always stimulate your mood by performing tricks. However, these types of pets are usually a handful to keep an eye on, which means you should pay constant attention to them.

affection

Example: I like all animals with fur, especially dogs, cats, and bears. I love dogs because they are the most loyal animals and it's fairly easy for them to become members of your family. Cats are great because of their independent attitude and affection for their owners. Lastly, I really like bears because they are powerful creatures, but they still look adorable and cuddly.

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 6.5.

3.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 1

When: The best piece of advice that I ever got was from my very first boss. I was just eighteen years old and had taken a summer job to earn money for the various things I had wanted to buy.

What: I spent the entire summer driving around and cleaning floors at night. The job required many different skills such as knowledge about chemicals, operating heavy machinery, and time management. The job was challenging due to it being an all-night job, so it was easy to become worn out from lack of sleep. I will never forget the advice my boss gave me. One night, when I was cleaning a particularly dirty floor he said to me, "Work smarter, not harder."

Why: His advice has stuck with me throughout the years. After that night, I had a realisation that when you are faced with multiple tasks, what you need to do is figure out a smart way to work efficiently rather than just begin working immediately. Every time I have many tasks to deal with at the same time, I think back to that piece of advice and it always helps me overcome any obstacles that I face.
