1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

explore

 Example: I like traveling to all kinds of distant destinations, but the place I love the most is the mountains. For the most part, I love backpacking and experiencing nature. I like going on adventures and I never get bored of exploring the mountains and their surrounding landscapes. Every spot ahead of me is unknown, which pushes me to explore further and stimulates my adventurous spirit.

 Example: I prefer to travel alone. Traveling alone gives me more freedom than traveling in a group. When traveling in a group I have a set of rules to follow, but I can tour the city freely when I am not with a group of people. Most importantly, I am totally capable of being my own tour guide.

interact

 Example: Personally speaking, I'm not interested in traveling with a travel agency due to its lack of flexibility. I would have to follow their schedule, even if I don't feel like participating in some of their activities. Also, if I am stuck in a tour group, I will be forced to mostly interact with the members in the group, which may cut my chances of meeting new and interesting people.

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 6.5.

3.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 1

What and which day: Four meatballs is my favourite food that my family cooks every Spring Festival.

How it is cooked: Cooking Four Meatballs is actually quite complicated, so my family usually makes it together. There are three steps that must be followed in order to make the dish correctly and it all begins with preparing the ingredients: meat, onions, and various sauces. I am usually the one who is in charge of washing onions. My dad chops the meat and onions while my mom is the one who mixes everything together. The second step is to make and fry the meatballs. We usually make four round golf ball-sized meatballs together. My mom then fries the meatballs for two to three minutes. Then comes the last step where my mom boils the meatballs for thirty minutes and after that, the dish is ready.

Why: The primary reason that we love this dish is that cooking it every year brings us closer together as a family. My mom always says this dish was too difficult to cook on her own, but I think her real motive is to encourage her family to take part in making the dish together.
