An open-air or street market

farm in that dark period.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

initially

Example: Undoubtedly, the most popular and widespread video games in China are app-based games. Initially, these games are free-to-play. But eventually, when the players are hooked, it becomes nearly impossible to continue without purchasing in-game upgrades.

reproduce

Example: I play online games regularly, mostly for the chance to compete against others. Online competition is another way to prove one's ability in something, which comes from the need to be the best. The thrill one gets from defeating one's enemies is hard to reproduce elsewhere in life.

capacity

Example: I think games, such as sports games are important for adults to play. Especially those requiring actions, intensive thinking and team work. It has been medically proven that playing games is extremely important for both children and adults. It helps not only to maintain fitness, but also enhances the capacity of thinking and cooperating. Therefore participating in sports games, such as basketball, football, tennis and other active games is essential.

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 6.5.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

2. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 2. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (6 mins)

Key words and key sentences

comparatively

Example: The cartons are comparatively light, and therefore easy to handle.

reputation

Example: His reputation was destroyed when he was caught stealing money from the company.

occupy

Example: His book collection occupies most of the room.

mind-boggling

Example: She was paid a mind-boggling sum of ten million dollars for that film.

3.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 1

Where: The market I'll be referencing is a famous open-air market I visited last year, named Temple Street, or Miu Gai. It is located in Kowloon, Hong Kong.

How big: As far as typical Hong Kong street markets go, Miu Gai is a bit on the small side.

What: The street market sells a variety of consumer goods. Since these products come directly from the supplier, they avoid passing through multiple middlemen and are thus sold at comparatively lower prices. Also, the market has a reputation for authentic and affordable Chinese street food, with food stalls being open late into the night.

Why: Miu Gai appealed to me because it is in complete contrast with the heartless skyscrapers and neon lights of the bars and clubs in Hong Kong. It served as an entrance into a long-lost, simpler time in the city, which I personally found very enchanting.
